muscle confidence and strength

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Recent testimonials have shown that the musclebuilding know-how imparted in the Newest Bodybuilding method to be introduced to the North American market may really contribute towards building a well muscled, proportionate physique. This method, known as MUSCLE FIGHTER IV has received much praise from those who have put it to the test. Gains in increased muscular body weight, loss of flab and the improvement of stamina have been little short of phenomenal. Reports from all over North America testify to the effectiveness of the MUSCLE FIGHTER IV plan.

The plan does not involve hours and hours of daily training and it may be followed in the privacy of your own room. Any man between 15 - 50 who has had a fitness checkup (not just a bill of good health under restful conditions) and who is prepared to tailor the program to his particular physical condition and age may apply.

The MUSCLE FIGHTER IV directors insist that there is no overnight method which can build huge muscles instantly. Gaining muscle size, firming up the body, and increasing strength all takes time and effort - But you as a man who may fit the requirements you may do it!

This company does not claim that you can build a fantastic body in seven days, or seven weeks. This is a three month course! And it will certainly take considerably longer than that to build a fantastic body like Robert Nailon's shown here! He has been training for a number of years.

"Sirs, my improvement has been great - What a course!"
D.H. FLUSHING, N.Y.

"Dear Sir, I cannot believe the way I feel - This program has really opened my eyes."
TOM KLEIN, N.J.

"Dear Friends, MUSCLE FIGHTER IV did it - I will always be appreciative. Thanks a million."
RICK THOMPSON, L.A., CA.

"I worked hard and got excellent results more power to your program."
JFK, NEW ORLEANS

"I gained muscle and body weight - Thank you for making me happier."
JOHN FARMER, BROOKLYN N.Y.

"Super appearance - Super feeling - What more can I say - I am proud."
TOM R. TORONTO, ONT.

The MUSCLE FIGHTER IV plan is not recommended for those who are not perfectly fit and healthy, nor is it advised for those who are lazy indolent or lacking in initiative. This wonderful new program involves no special apparatus whatsoever. A FREE book describing how you may get started with this new method will be sent at once. Simply fill in the coupon below! You may NEVER regret it! There is no obligation. Only those interested in physical improvement need apply. Limit one book per family. Send no money!

HOW YOU CAN USE

ISOKINETICS

A REALLY NEW BREAKTHRU IN MUSCLE BUILDING!!!!

Scientific Test PROVES Isokinetics
166% Better Than Weights
390% Better Than Isometrics
For Putting Muscle on YOU!

Weight lifting has been the traditional method for training "Mr." contestants and athletes in all sports. But isokinetics has been proven superior to weight training for building your strength, your body, and your explosive power. . . faster and more effectively than ever possible before. Here's why:

During each Isokinetic exercise, you continually change the "weight" to the amount that your muscles need for fastest maximum development. (With a barbell you can't change the weight until after the exercise.)

"Sounds great," you say, "So how do I get started, and how much is it going to cost me?"

Until now, the only isokinetic exercisers available were complicated machines costing from $120 to over $4000. But NOW! A NEW invention, amazing in its beautiful simplicity, puts isokinetic muscle building within your reach for only a few dollars.

Powerex = Isokinetics

The invention is POWEREX! It is a pure isokinetic exerciser designed to give you the ultimate benefits of muscle, strength, and explosive power in a hurry. And, as you know, with these benefits come the added benefits of confidence, virility, and the outgoing personality that enables you to get along well with others of both sexes.

POWEREX is going to do all this for you through the following isokinetic principles:

- 1) POWEREX builds your muscles through their full range of movement. It works every small muscle fiber to its utmost. Not the grunt-and-groan partial static results of an isometric gadget, but the total dynamic power of isokinetics!
- 2) POWEREX has the exclusive CONTROL GRIPS. You instantly and smoothly change the amount of "weight" working for you, to the maximum your muscles can handle . . . from zero to hundreds of pounds, quickly building your

Changing the weight resistance at any instant during the exercise??? Without stopping to do it??? Yes! . . . this is the isokinetic principle, which builds your body to athletic proportions faster than any other method! Your POWEREX isokinetic exerciser is shown adding the inches of chest and arm muscle in a "bench press" . . . but without expensive bench, weight stand, and weights! (Patent Pending) body into a classic, powerful machine!

Illustrated Wall Chart, Courses

POWEREX is safe and light, two pounds. POWEREX is compact, quick and easy to use, anytime, anywhere. At no extra cost, you also get a big 20x28 inch wall chart with illustrations and instructions. Several courses are described . . . for increased strength, bigger muscles, or turning fat into muscle. One course takes only 15 minutes a week.

Money-back Guarantee

The parts and workmanship are guaranteed for one full year from date of purchase.

AND: If you are not satisfied with your POWEREX for any reason whatsoever, just send it back within 14 days of receipt for an immediate full refund of your money. . . no questions asked.

Finally, the best part is that POWEREX will cost you only $11.95 (plus $2 for postage and handling)! Right! For less than 1/10th the cost of the next inexpensive isokinetic exerciser on the market, the benefits of isokinetic muscle building are yours!

So don't wait another moment . . . fill out the coupon, write your check or money order, and get it in the mail now. The sooner you do, the sooner you receive your POWEREX and start the isokinetic way to a muscular body and dynamic power!

RESULTS FAST—HERE'S PROOF!!

Some researchers conducted a scientific experiment and published the results in a leading medical journal. It showed that the average peak strength improvement, after only eight weeks, for each type of exercise was:

Isokinetics	47.2%
Weight training	28.6%
Isometrics	12.1%

Another group of researchers stated that all published research matching isokinetics with weight training and isometrics showed that isokinetics is greatly superior for muscle building.

■ "I am a weight lifter of eight years. However, after using the Powerex just once, I sold all of my weights!" James Hinson, Jr., NC.

■ "Gained 20 lbs, increased arms 2½ inches, chest 3 inches, reduced waist 2 inches. Look and feel a lot better." Joseph Moreno, CA.

■ "In the short time I have been using the Powerex, I have put over an inch on my arms, 2 inches on my chest, and gained 21 lbs." Scott Carterette, CA.

■ "You aren't just another rip-off company . . . you back what you say." T Roeklin, WI.

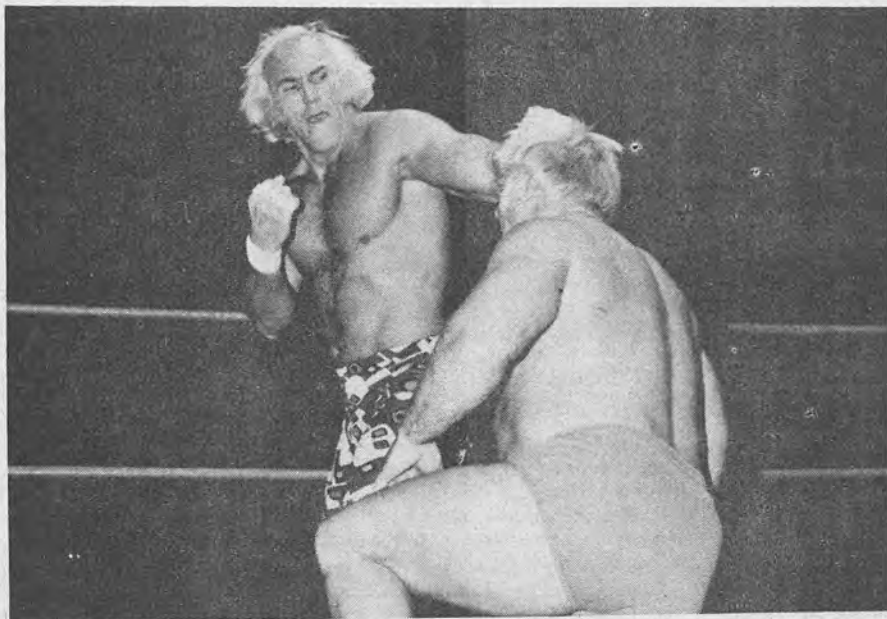

■ "Before, I was known as a singles hitter. This past season I was a home run hitter and I credit Powerex with this." Alabama.

■ "I reduced my waist 3", increased my arms 1½ inches, chest 2½ inches. Powerex has been the greatest!" D. Owens, MA.

■ "Easy to use, easy to store! Good program, no frustrations or unnecessary holdups as with a weight program." J. Hanna, PA.

■ "After only two weeks, I am dead-lifting 450 lbs, bench pressing 240 lbs, and squatting with 400 lbs. I'm glad that I invested the $13.95!" Richard Ozer, MT.

NEWS FROM THE WRESTLING CAPITALS

WISCONSIN WHIRLWINDS By Eddie Meltz

GREEN BAY FANS filled the arena for matches featuring Ivan Putski against Baron Von Raschke and Billy Graham pitted against Crusher.

The first match saw Putski versus Von Raschke. Baron instantly attempted to destroy Ivan with his infamous clawhold. Ivan broke the hold, which drove Von Raschke berserk.

Ivan then became trapped in the ropes and Von Raschke attacked. He put the claw on Putski. The referee started counting for Baron to release the hold, so Von Raschke decked the official! Von Raschke was immediately disqualified.

Meanwhile, Putski escaped from the hold and beat Baron senseless. It was a pounding the Baron will long remember.

That match was followed by Billy "Superstar" Graham against Crusher. Billy entered the arena with none other than Von Raschke. Crusher didn't need to be told what would happen if the two of them got near him. So, he went back to the dressing room and secured the services of Ivan Putski!

After a furious battle with each man gaining and losing the advantage, Crusher was about to pin Graham when Von Raschke rushed to Billy's aid. Putski then jumped in, but the referee stopped him. So Baron and Billy, with brass knuckles, beat Crusher.

Ivan then managed to get back in the ring and joined Crusher in getting some revenge for Crusher's beating. Baron and Billy were forced to retreat to the dressing room.

TARHEEL NEWS By B.J. Hammack

Wahoo McDaniel was waiting patiently for his match to begin in the Raleigh TV studio when Super Destroyer, complete with crown, waltzed in front of the cameras.

Super Destroyer explained the crown signified he was wrestling's king. He also informed everyone they should now bow down to their new king.

Wahoo could stomach the ravings no longer and told the "king" so. They exchanged words, even to the point where Super Destroyer, remembering Wahoo's past as a New York Jet, told the Chief he wasn't fit to wipe Joe Namath's shoes!

Wahoo promptly challenged Super Destroyer to wrestle anytime, anywhere. The masked wrestler answered the challenge by snatching Wahoo's headdress and hurling it from the N O W THE WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING SECRETS CAN BE YOURS...

THE SUPREME GRAND MASTER OF THE
BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY
 brings you the forbidden secrets of

DIM MAK

"The Death Touch"
 in this exclusive book!

"THE DEADLIEST MAN ALIVE!"

Bringing to you these forbidden and secret fighting arts is the Supreme Grand Master of all the fighting arts — Count Dante who won the World overall Fighting Arts championship (Master & Expert Divisions) after defeating the top Judo, Boxing, Wrestling, Karate, Gung Fu, Aikido, etc. masters in 'Death Matches'. On Aug. 1, 1967 the World Federation of Fighting Arts crowned the Count — "The World's Deadliest Fighting Master."

THIS BOOK CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

The FORBIDDEN and SECRET training manual of the BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY has never before been available to anyone outside of the Society. Recent attempts for regular publication and public exposure have been rejected as the contents were considered HORRIFYINGLY DANGEROUS and BRUTALLY VICIOUS.

Yes, this is the DEADLIEST and most TERRIFYING fighting art known to man — and WITHOUT EQUAL. Its MAIMING, MUTILATING, DISFIGURING, PARALYZING and CRIPPLING techniques are known by only a few people in the world. An expert at DIM MAK could easily kill many Judo, Karate, Aikido and Gung Fu experts at one time with only finger tip pressure using his murderous POISON HAND WEAPONS. Instructing you step by step thru each move in this manual is now other than COUNT DANTE — THE DEADLIEST MAN WHO EVER LIVED.

BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY

The BLACK DRAGON FIGHTING SOCIETY is the WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING ORGANIZATION which has included in its closed membership the top fighting experts of the DREADED CHINESE TONG SOCIETY — the oriental, and more vicious counterpart of the Mafia. Its members, who are the world's top Masters in the oriental fistic and grappling arts, train in the most SECRET and FORBIDDEN aspects of the DEADLY Chinese fighting arts of GUNG FU, TAI CHI CHUAN, CHUAN-FA, KEMPO, HSING YI, PA-KUA, SHAOLIN BOXING and DIM MAK.

Until recently the forbidden training secrets of the society have been closely guarded by the members who were sworn to secrecy and joined together thru their initiation ceremony of blood. Breaking of the oath to secrecy meant death by torture to the offender.

Now for the first time their FORBIDDEN SECRETS OF TERROR can be shared with you.

BREAK A BRICK

Included in the manual is a GUARANTEED method of brick and board breaking enabling anyone to break a brick or board after only minutes of training. THIS IS NO EXAGGERATION. THERE IS NO TRICK OR GIMMICK. There is nothing to be held in the hand, or any hand brace needed; and no special stunt bricks or boards are needed. This is the same method that many famous Karate Masters use.

POISON HAND

Considered by many as evil and cruel; the lethally savage ripping, tearing, slashing, clawing and gouging techniques which comprise the POISON HAND ARSENAL are used to attack (by strike, touch or pressure) the nerve centers, pressure points, major blood vessels and vital organs of the body. You will learn the original 77 "POISON HAND" techniques of ancient China in actual photographs showing them in application. These are not photos of drawings, but actual photos of COUNT DANTE applying these torturing techniques which are meant to maim, disfigure, cripple or kill and have been used by oriental terrorists and assassins to MURDER!

OUR $10,000 GUARANTEE

We cannot guarantee to make you a Fighting Arts Master or even an expert, as this is up to you; but we can make a $10,000 GUARANTEE that this book is DEADLIER than any other book, manual or course ever printed anywhere, at any cost and that it was, as mentioned before, refused for past publication due to its extremely FEROCEOUS nature. We also guarantee that the "WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING SECRETS" contains the most SECRET and FORBIDDEN attack and defense methods ever devised by man and that the DIM MAK and POISON HAND techniques are completely authentic and the WORLD'S DEADLIEST FIGHTING FORMS. Last we guarantee that you can break a real, authentic brick or board WITH NO GIMMICK — just your hand, using our method AFTER ONLY MINUTES OF TRAINING. If you are not satisfied; return the book in good condition and you will receive a refund. MAIL COUPON NOW! AIR MAIL REACHES US OVERNIGHT.

DISGUSTING FANS

I really think it's disgusting the way some fans act at wrestling matches. When I went to the Olympic Arena in Los Angeles, the fans acted disgustingly.

The match I saw was between Terry Funk and Victor Rivera. My friend and I were rooting for Terry while the majority were hoping for a Rivera victory. The fans not only shouted vulgar obscenities at Terry but at us also.

If you ask me, the fans should be honored to watch men like Terry Funk wrestle. I think it's about time some of these fans started acting human and decent.

NEW DUSTY

A few months ago the most shocking thing happened. Dusty Rhodes changed his ways!

Now he's wiping up the mat with villains rather than good guys. He's almost indestructible. The whole state of Florida is wild about him. We all love the new Dusty Rhodes!

WILSON AND BROOKS

Dr. Manfred E. Wilson's brilliant analysis of Killer Brooks (THE WRESTLER/October 1974) ranks with the greatest psychological literature available today. All of Wilson's articles are required reading in my classes.

I was especially impressed by Wilson's thesis which contends Brooks' aberrant behavior is the product of filial guilt. I myself have suspected as much watching the man wrestle.

Again I congratulate Dr. Wilson on his continuing series exploring the psyches of wrestlers. Only by comprehending the exceptional may we begin to understand the normal.

DR. FRANK WAYNE

One reader complains that she was the target of obscenities hurled at her by the fans of Victor Rivera as he wrestled Terry Funk (above). Another reader, a psychology professor, hails Dr. Manfred Wilson's study of Killer Brooks (below).

THE BOSTON KID Wins 2 Out Of Every 3 Football Bets!

BIG PROFITS in betting Pro-Football can be YOURS, too, if you follow his fool-proof System in.....

HOW TO BEAT THE BOOKIES AT PRO FOOTBALL

by The Boston Kid — Al Sandler

You don't need Inside Info, Special Skills, or Good Luck ... All you need is a few simple figures from your local newspaper, And the Boston Kid's personal BEAT THE BOOKIES system!

All the information is in your local paper. Once you know where to look for it, and how to use it, you can quickly master the Boston Kid's system to make betting pro-football your game. If you can add and subtract, you can make the Great American Sport pay off for you in lots of "easy" dollars. This book tells you exactly how!

Make Your Bookie Wish He Had Never Met You

The BEAT THE BOOKIES Method is based on a proven system of determining a definite point-rating for each team, each week. With this accurate and reliable rating, you know what the TRUE Betting Line should be. After that, it's easy. Compare your TRUE Line with the Bookmaker's Line, and you know exactly how to bet. No guess-work. No hunch bets. No emotional bets, you bet strictly according to which team should win by the point-spread. You bet TO WIN!

Don't Be Fooled By The Betting Line

All pro-bettors agree that the Bookies Line is NOT the true rating of the strengths of each team. The Line simply indicates the public's opinion of what the point spread should be. Thus, if you can accurately handicap the TRUE LINE — like the pro gamblers do — successful and profitable betting is yours. From there on, you're a winner! The Boston Kid gives you his personal winning formula for determining the exact point-rating of each team, and how to make needed adjustments on that rating when necessary. It may sound complicated, but you'll be absolutely amazed when you discover how simple it really is.

There Is Much More

This book is not a mere pamphlet; it's a full length volume that thoroughly explains every facet of football betting. It exposes every trick the "wise-guys" use, and how these "Pros" spot an overlay or an underlay in a few seconds. You'll learn when to bet more, when to bet less, and when not to bet. You discover how to pick your spots. There's a built-in Money Management system that practically guarantees you a net profit of double the amount of your losing bets. This Money Management System — by itself — is worth more than 50 times the price of the book.

Positive Proof That The System Works

During the past 5 seasons, The Boston Kid won 2 out of every 3 bets, or $200 profit for every $100 loss. But he doesn't expect you to take his word for it; he proves it. In this book, Al Sandler takes you with him on an actual game-by-game, week-by-week journey through the 1973 season in which he tells you which games he bet, how much he bet, which games he did not bet ... and he explains the reason for his actions. He shows you exactly how he applied his rules to every game, and remember, the same rules apply to each and every game. You'll see for yourself the games he won ... and those he lost. This is no Monday Morning quarterback system. You'll understand every move he made and why he made those moves. This season, you can apply the same rules, make the same moves, and be a BIG WINNER.

Additional Betting Facts You Need

Due to space limitations, it's impossible to describe everything this valuable book contains, but here's a small sample of the info that's included:

- Which teams win more games, favorites or underdogs?
- How important are key-player injuries?
- What's the exact point advantage for the Home Team?
- How to recognize an overlay or underlay in seconds.
- What's the truth about Teaser Bets?
- Tips on "rating" your bookie, honest or dishonest.
- Get more for your money with Money Management.
- Preview Team-Ratings for the 1974 Season.
- What to watch for in the Exhibition Season.
- Effect of new game rules on the betting Line.
- All these facts, and many more!

Meet The Author
Al Sandler
"The Boston Kid"

Not such a kid anymore, Al Sandler is well-known in betting circles, and highly respected as one of the most analytical bettors of this century. His nickname "The Boston Kid" was hung on him by a bookmaker when he was "betting" his way through college at Boston University, and the name stuck. That was back in 1945, so you can figure out how many years of betting experience he has. Today, he's semi-retired from his lucrative publishing business, but he keeps busy with his "first loves", writing and sports handicapping. The Kid's first book "Gambling For Profit" was financial success for him and for those that bought it. His latest gambling piece appears in the September issue of Gallery Magazine.

Jose Gonzales thought veteran Johnny Rodz was trying to embarrass him. Jose was right Johnny Rodz isn't budging (left) as he tries to kill time in his match against Jose Gonzales. He admitted he was trying to knock Jose's strategy off with his own brand of very unusual strategy.

"DON'T JUST SIT THERE ... WRESTLE!"

THE YOUNG, FIERY Puerto Rican tiger was fuming. Yes. Jose Gonzales' temper was flaring. It had reached its peak. And it was Johnny Rodz, a sly, roughhouse wrestler, who was responsible.

What was Rodz doing to get Jose in this furious state of mind? He was just sitting. That's right. Just sitting. Sitting on the ropes!

As hard as it is to believe, halfway through their match Rodz just perched himself on the top strand and sat there—and he wasn't moving!

You're probably wondering why. And Rodz has no bones about explaining his side of the story.

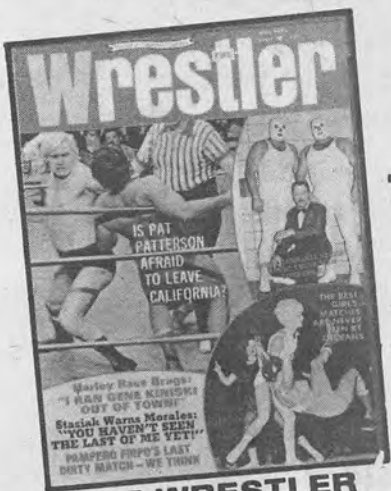

"No. I wouldn't move," Rodz admitted. "No way. You see, this Gonzales is a puppy as far as I'm concerned. I'm an experienced master. He was trying to make me look bad.

Rodz' plans are foiled as Jose lifts him off the ropes and sends him flying with this spectacular toss. Both Rodz and Jose are vying for top honors in the east and this match was important for both of them.

MR. HITO:

JAPANESE MURDER MACHINE!

He's versed in the arts of samurai and sumo wrestling. He's come to North America to, as he says, kill or be killed. Mr. Hito is perhaps the most dangerous Japanese wrestler to invade these shores since The Great Togo!

AS A CHILD he was versed in the martial arts of a samurai warrior. As he matured the science of sumo wrestling captured his imagination and he went on to become a master of its intricacies. Now, searching for new fields to conquer, he has become a professional wrestler.

He calls himself Mr. Hito. Many already consider him the most dangerous wrestler to come out of Japan. More are coming to that conclusion every day.

"As a child," Mr. Hito declares, "the samurai teachers taught there are only two choices—to kill or be killed. There is no in-between. Mercy has nothing to do with a warrior. I learned my lessons well. I, too, know not the meaning of mercy. An opponent is an enemy. He may hurt you if you don't do him in first.

"Kill or be killed—that is the only rule. Any other rule is for fools. I am not a fool.

"I gave up sumo wrestling for it was too structured. I stayed there only long enough to learn the art. I took what I needed and then left. A samurai does not follow regulations.

"Learning the martial arts and philosophies has made my reflexes quick, my mind cunning, my muscles strong. I take thousands of years of Japanese martial knowledge and apply it. I am a professional wrestler. I am successful. The fate of others means nothing to me."

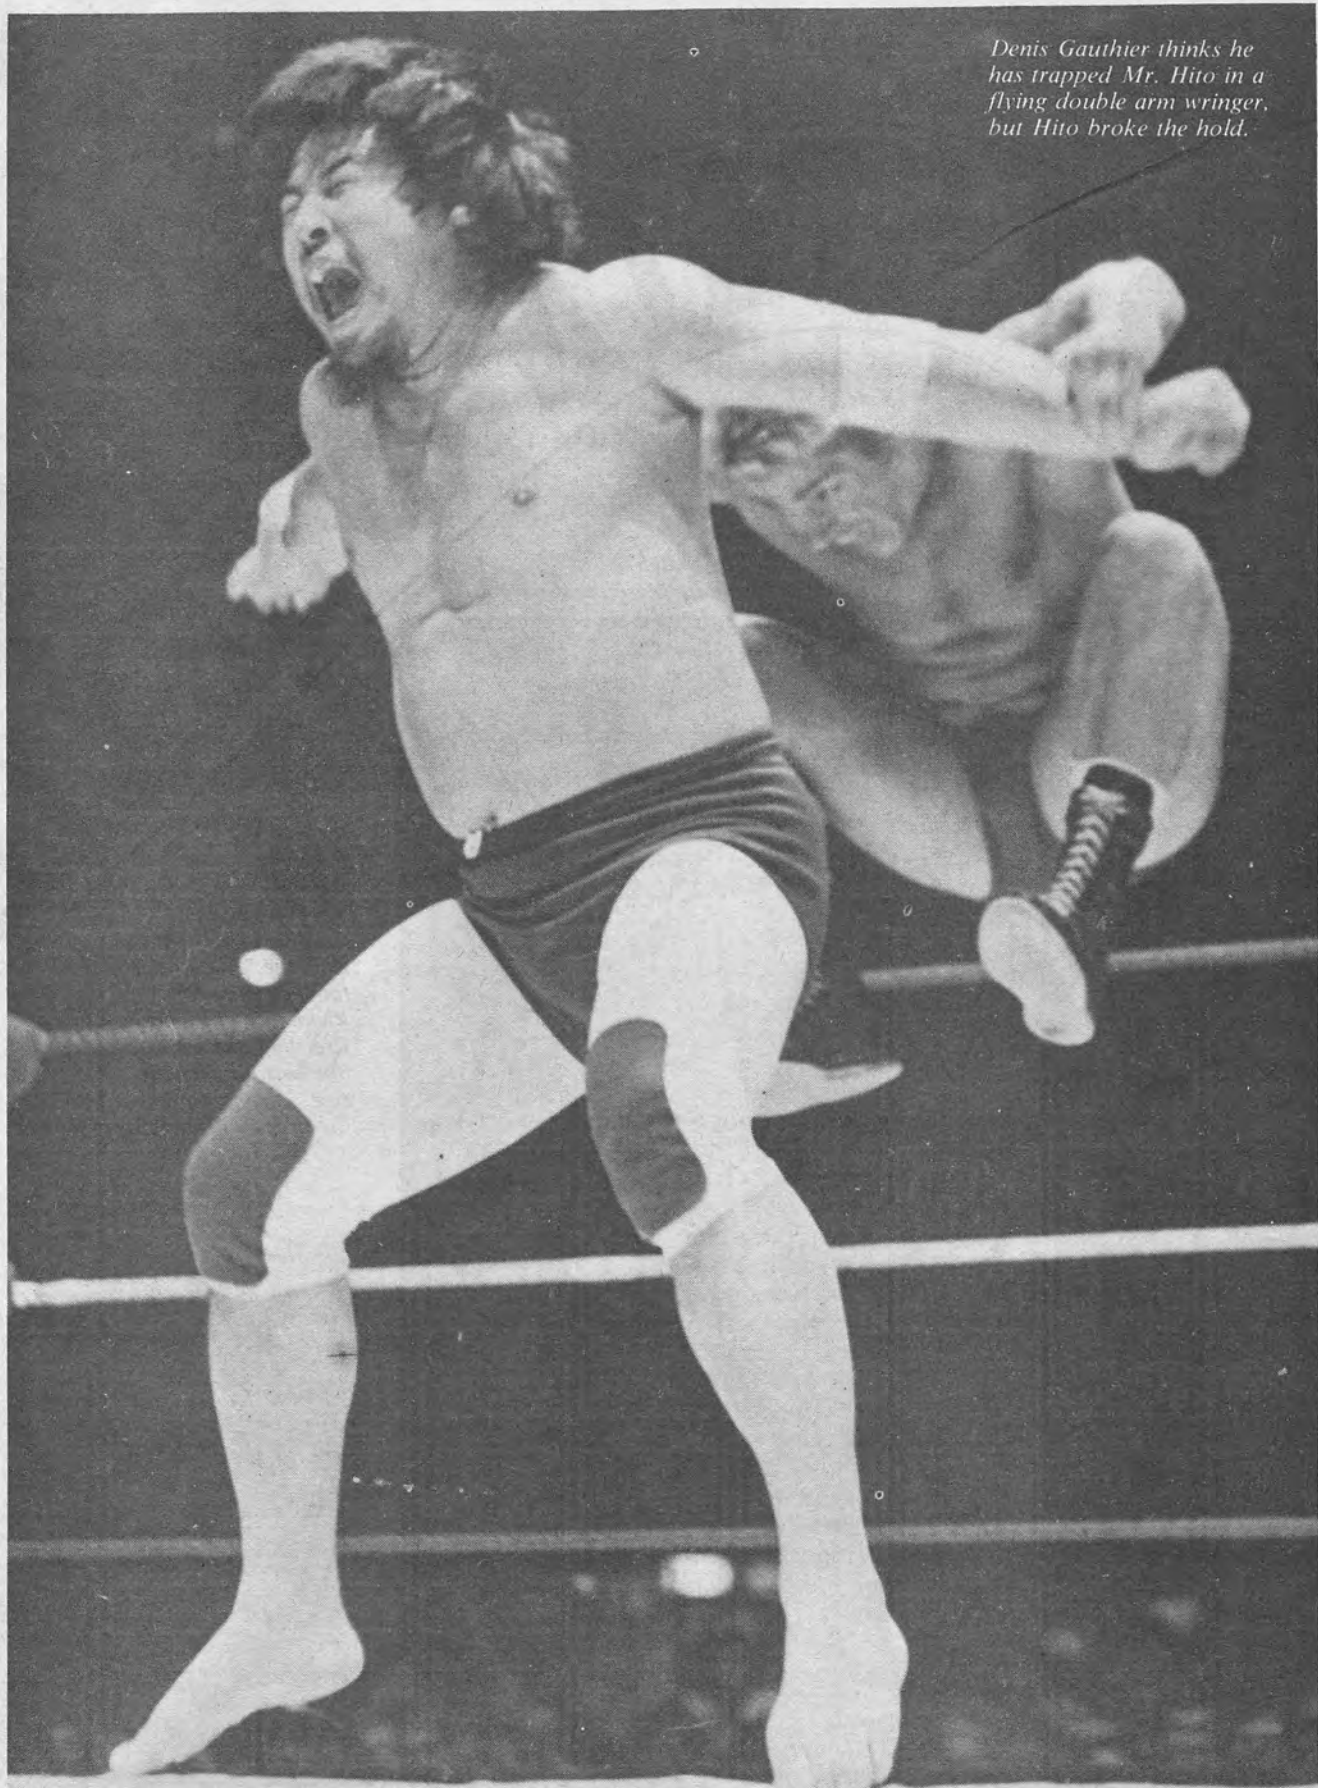

Anyone who sees Mr. Hito wrestle learns the Japanese grappler is not exaggerating. If he was a warrior his motto would be, "Take no prisoners."

WRESTLING'S SEXIES

Below: It's a chain of headlocks as the girls give and get punishment at the same time. The only one not forced to absorb the excruciating pain is Vicki Williams, who goes on to win the match. It was a good night for Vicki for many reasons.

Vicki Williams (below) has every right to smile as she wins the $1,000 prize for the battle royal. Vicki earned the money by wrestling like a spitfire. She was all over the ring, hurling opponents over the ropes with pinpoint efficiency.

They fought like wildcats for the $1,000 prize. But they all want to know why it was only $1,000

Above: The ring is filled with battling women as each tries to win the $1,000 prize. Right: The legs belong to Sue Green as she struggles to stay in the running for the check. Sue stayed a lot longer than many of the girls who have her trapped.

BATTLE ROYAL!

THE ELECTRIC TENSION could be felt through the entire arena. In the dressing rooms there was a subdued silence. Each girl knew everyone else near her would become an enemy the moment the buzzer sounded. With $1,000 at stake, friendships would be forgotten as long as the battle lasted.

Compared to what men can earn in a battle royal, up to $50,000, the $1,000 seemed paltry to some of the nine girls participating. There were grumblings, with Donna Christinello voicing the complaints.

"Because we're women," Donna announced angrily, "they think they can get us cheap! Can you imagine nine men having a battle royal for only a grand? That's unheard of—but not for women. This bout should be worth at least $10,000. It's things like this that make girls feel like second-class wrestlers.

"You know something, though, we're happy to get a chance for even $1,000. It's not often we have a battle royal. The money is lousy but it's all that's around."

Other girls expressed the same disappointment over the size of the purse but took it philosophically. Vicki Williams looked at the situation from that point of view.

"The $1,000 is a beginning," Vicki believes. "Girl wrestling is slowly but surely working its way to an even par with men. Women have always been paid less than men, in wrestling as in everywhere else. I'll bet by next year we have a lot more money at stake. It's going to take time."

"I think all the girls realize its up to us to prove to the fans and promoters that we are just as much, if not more, exciting than men in battle royals. So when we go out there tonight, it's not just going to be for a single check. It's an investment in the future." Continued

As Joyce Grable and Vicki Williams try to unmask Miss Wrestling, Peggy Patterson lashes a kick into Vicki's back (above). Vicki is able to recover and go on to win. She smiles happily (below) accepting the $1,000 check.

Above: Vicki and Sue team up to send the masked Miss Wrestling over the ropes, leaving the two women to battle for the victory themselves.

Daisy Mae claimed to be uninterested in the money. She was participating for other reasons.

"I love battle royals!" the pretty hillbilly enthused. "It's always so wild with everyone swinging away. It's as close to total chaos as you're going to get. It's a totally a rough-and-tumble affair. You may finish the match without any money, covered with bruises, but you've had a hell of a lot of fun!"

"Sure I'd like the same amount of money offered as the men get. I became a professional wrestler because I wanted to earn money wrestling. But if the dough isn't there, it isn't there. I'm not going to let the small purse kill my good time."

So it was nine very different girls who climbed through those ropes to compete for the $1,000. They were there for the enjoyment, the money, and the pride. Each had her own reasons but each had only one purpose—to be the last one in the ring.

As might be expected when nine wildcats are in a confined space and told to tear into each other, the action was furious from the moment the buzzer sounded. It was every girl for herself and each wanted to be the winner.

Within the first minute, the ladies found themselves in a headlock line—no sooner would one clamp a headlock on an opponent then she herself would become a victim of the identical hold. All nine girls were connected. Only Vicki Williams, at the front of the line, administered pain without receiving any.

What happens when the world's best Tomahawk chop runs up against the world's best karate chop? Just ask Chief Wahoo and Kusatsu Wahoo McDaniel (above) claimed his Tomahawk chop was deadlier than Kusatsu's Judo chop. They made bloody messes out of each other in their wild battle in Japan (right).

CHIEF WAHOO MCDANIEL wrestled in Japan recently and was lucky to leave with his scalp!

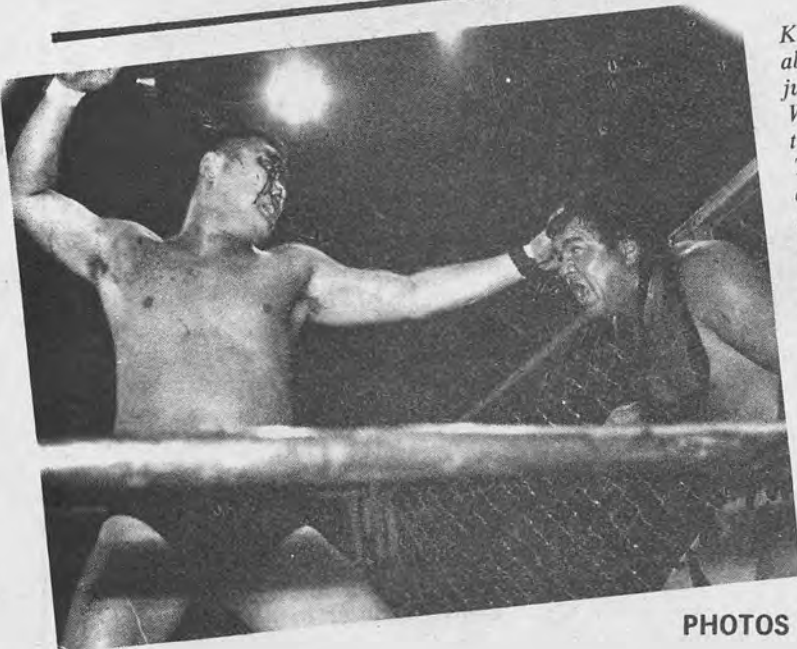

In Tokyo for a match against the young, scientific Mighty Inoue, Wahoo took the popular Japanese star apart with a series of "Tomahawk" chops.

Watching the match at ringside was the Great Kusatsu, and he didn't like what he had just witnessed.

"You are dirty!" yelled Kusatsu, springing from his seat. Wahoo glared down at him and grabbed the announcer's microphone.

"Shut up! Are you a wrestler?"

KARATE CHOP VS. TOMAHAWK CHOP!

Kusatsu is about to judo chop Wahoo on the head. The Japanese star is already bloody from Wahoo's Tomahawk chops. This was one of the most bloody and brutal matches ever seen in Japan.

If you are, I'll kill you!"

"Okay, let's wrestle tonight!" Kusatsu hollered back.

Wahoo liked the idea and a contract was quickly drawn up for the two to wrestle that same night. They were scheduled to meet in the best two-out-of-three falls, with a 60-minute time limit.

Kusatsu took the first fall by using a series of well-placed flying dropkicks and karate chops. Wahoo took the second fall easily as he smothered Kusatsu in Tomahawk chops.

In the third fall both men were cut by each other's powerful blows. McDaniel was thrown through the ropes and onto the floor. The Great Kusatsu followed him through, determined to totally and thoroughly destroy him. Both men yanked

"You're a dead man, daddy!" Ladd warns Andre as he prepares to tackle the giant football style.

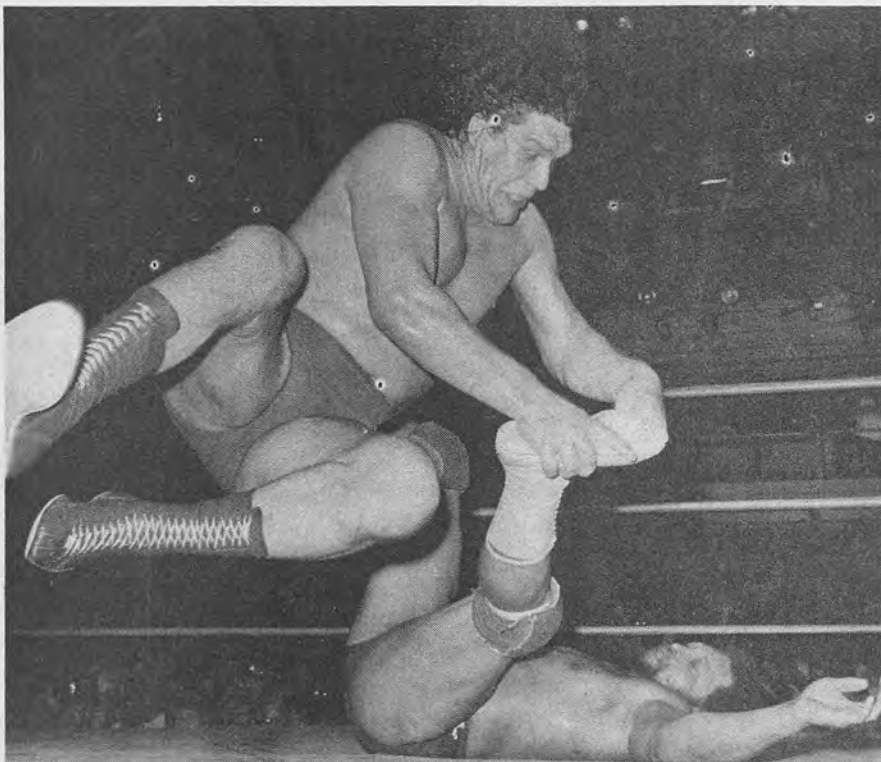

THE TWO TOWERING figures stood at opposite ends of the ring. Dwarfed in the middle was the unlucky referee, a man who would attempt to keep order. The two men listened impatiently for the introductions to be concluded. They were more than anxious to begin the match.

In one corner, Andre the Giant stood majestic. He remembered the taunts which had driven him to the match. Other wrestlers had accused him of not going against any really large wrestler besides Don Leo Jonathan. More and more the cry was taken up that Andre was afraid to meet someone close to his size.

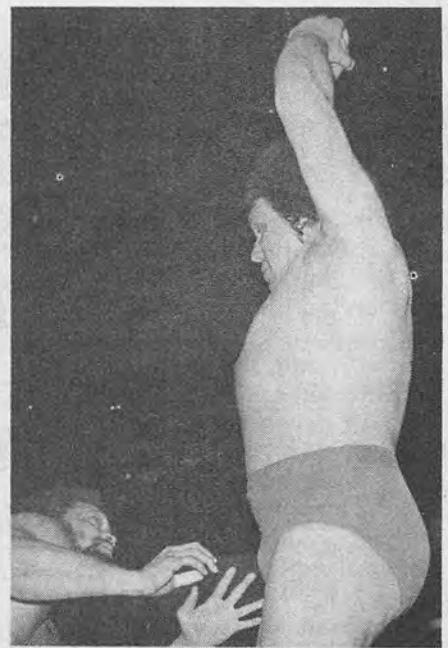

The accusations hurt Andre. So the giant had gone looking for a large, fearsome, and feared opponent. Ernie Ladd was the perfect choice. It turned out that finding the opponent was the smallest part of the problem.

In the other corner was the reluctant Ernie Ladd. There were about a million other places Ladd would rather have been.

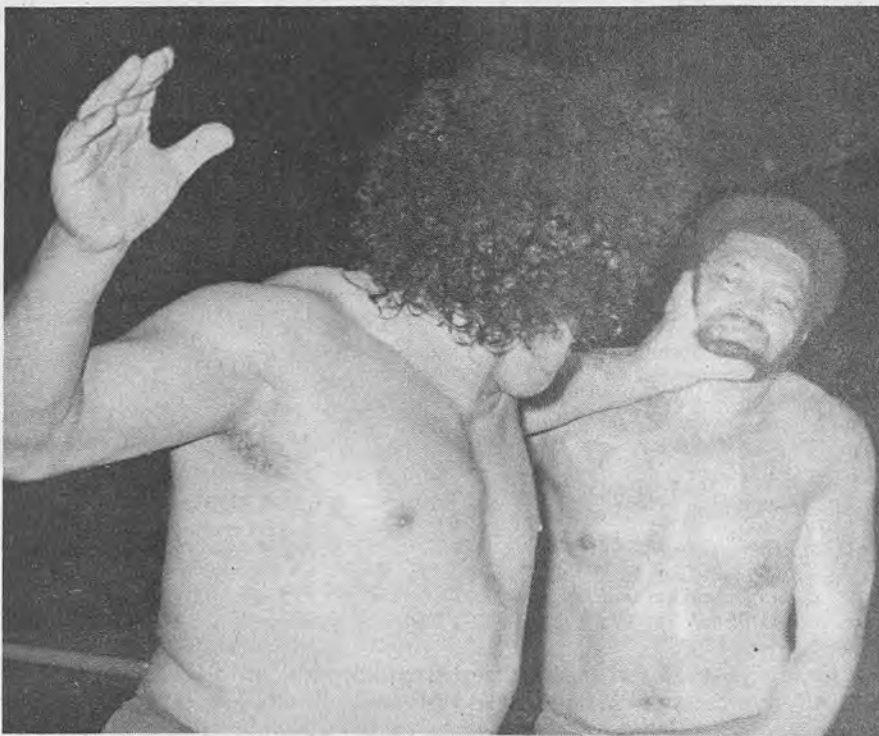

When the promoters had first approached Ladd with Andre's challenge, his response had been a short and emphatic, "No!" He wanted no part of a match with Andre.

Look out (above)! Andre's going to come crashing down right on Ladd's knee joint. Man. That's gonna hurt! Andre continues to punish big Ernie as he sets him up for a super-powerful judo chop. Ernie hit the mat with a bang and it took almost two full minutes before the former football player could get to his feet!

Fear is written all over Ernie's face as Andre prepares to hammer Ladd into the mat (above). Ladd was virtually helpless against the slightly bigger French giant.

Everyone wondered what'd happen when Andre The Giant ran up against someone his own size. Ernie Ladd found out

"Who wants to wrestle some freak?" Ladd said angrily. "He's too big to be considered a real wrestler. He's an overgrown joke, not a man. Tell him to go beat on a gorilla."

Still, Andre persisted and Ladd eventually gave in. He made no secret of the fact this was not a match to which he looked forward with relish. In fact, even after the match was signed, Ladd went out of his way to make it never come off.

Andre was giving a television interview when Ernie attacked him from behind. Ernie wanted to put Andre out of commission. Instead, the outcome made Ladd dread the match even more.

Andre whirled around and came face to face with Ladd. The Giant promptly assaulted Ladd with a series of devastating headbutts. The skin on Ladd's skull split open and blood poured from the gashes. Ladd could do nothing but run and attend to his wounds.

Now there was no getting around it. Ladd was in the ring and Andre the Giant was across from him. Andre, was determined to prove he could conquer men close to his own size. Ernie didn't want to be proof of Andre's ability.

The referee took a look at his huge charges and shook his head in despair. But he, like Ladd, had to be there and it was impossible to turn back. The buzzer sounded and the match began.

Ladd decided he would bring Andre down the way he had brought men down thousands of times on the football field. Ernie got into a lineman's crouch and dared Andre to charge. As soon as Andre came at him, Ladd hoped to drop him with a clean tackle.

Andre may not have been a football star, but the sport at the moment was wrestling. No one can deny Andre is a wrestling star. So the gargantuan grappler took a look at the situation and reacted accordingly.

Andre started to come at Ladd, waiting for his opponent to leave the crouch and commit himself. When Ernie barrelled ahead, Andre sidestepped and let Ernie go crashing into the ropes.

Ladd hit the ropes and fell face first to the canvas. He sprang back to his feet but he was to be a lot more careful for the rest of the match.

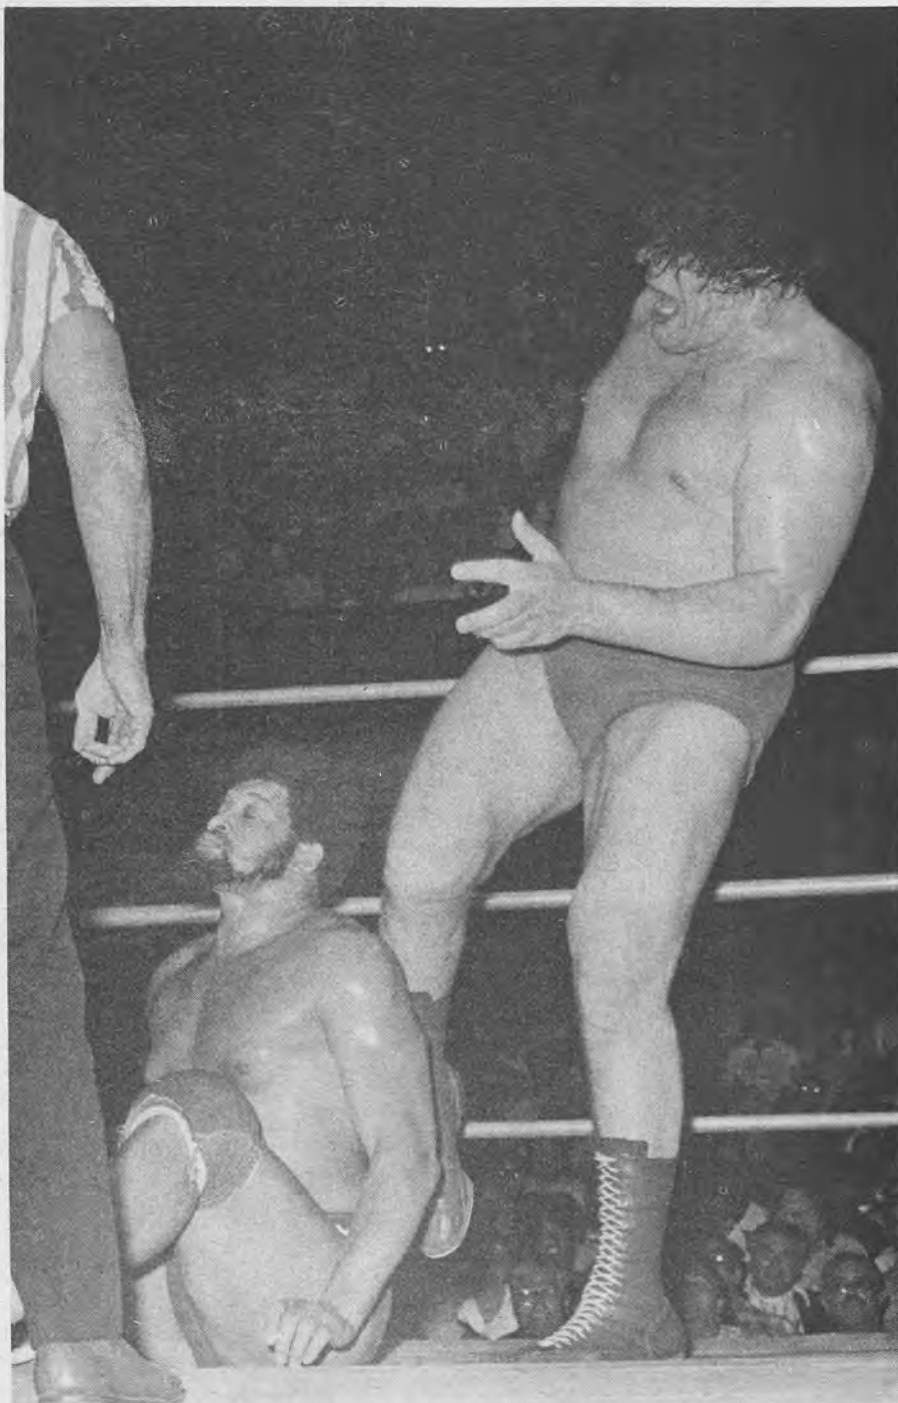

After the first humiliating experience, Ladd's pride seemed to take command of him and he battled Andre tooth and nail. The huge men tore into each other, trading agonizing holds and brutal maneuvers. It was truly a battle of titans.

Andre, however, was to get the advantage. Once the advantage was his, he exploited it to the fullest. Ladd became the victim of Andre's powerful headlock. When Andre decided Ladd had been weakened enough, the Giant went to work.

First, he released Ladd long enough to give him a savage, open-handed punch. Ernie crumpled to the canvas from the force of the blow. It was the beginning of the end.

Ladd was on his back and Andre grabbed and spread his opponent's legs. With a mighty leap, the Giant hurled his entire weight onto the knee joint. Ernie screamed in agony, an almost inhuman shout of pain and terror.

Andre leaped to his feet to watch Ladd sit up from the force of the crash. While Ernie was sitting, Andre ran behind him and lashed his leg into the small of Ladd's back. Ladd flew forward, his head smashing to the mat. When Ladd raised his head from the canvas, his glazed eyes revealed Ernie was functioning only by his instincts for survival.

Ladd marshaled his remaining strength for a last-ditch attempt to win. Slowly, he pulled himself up and ran awkwardly toward Andre.

Andre responded by charging at Ladd. It looked like the two men would plow into each other for the most awesome crash since the Indy 500.

They crashed—and it was as devastating as predicted. However, there was one surprise. The referee had inadvertently gotten in between them!

All three men crumpled to the canvas in an unconscious heap. The first to arise was Andre. He saw the pile and logically figured he was the winner. He joyously raised his arm to signify victory as the crowd cheered.

Andre did—and when he came back on the rebound, he body blocked Ladd and sent the humiliated Ernie flying over the ropes! Ladd was hesitant to wrestle Andre in the first place and we know he won't want to do it again. But Andre wants another match.

Andre was already back in the dressing room when the referee, with the help of smelling salts, regained consciousness. He shook his head and then dropped the last bombshell of this surprising match.

"Both wrestlers," he announced, "slugged me when the crash occurred. Therefore, I'm disqualifying both men! The match is a draw!"

The crowd was stunned. When Andre heard the news he was overcome with anger and sadness. Almost immediately, however, he snapped out of it and looked at the matter from another angle.

"I sought this match," he reasoned, "not to get a victory, but to prove a point. No one who saw this match should doubt I can't wrestle any man in the world, no matter what the size!"

As for Ladd, all he said was, "I knew that freak was too big to be a wrestler!" □

"That miserable savage!" screamed Gorgeous George Jr. "If he caused any permanent damage to my beauty I'll kill him!"

Dillon ties George up in the ropes and kicks viciously at the Gorgeous one's head and chest (above). George takes the advantage (below) but is in trouble again (right).

ANGER WAS MAKING Gorgeous George Jr.'s face almost as red as the blood covering it. The outrage welling up inside him made his blood-soaked golden locks shake furiously.

"That savage!" George screamed. "That miserable savage! If he caused any permanent damage to my beauty, I'll kill him. I swear it! There won't be enough left of him to bury!"

"I'm bleeding! I'm scared!" George ranted. "My perfection is marred. That madman has committed a crime against all that is beautiful. I'll kill him! I swear I'll kill him!"

George stopped raving long enough to see the doctor approach him with the needle, preparing to stitch his wounds. The blood remained red but George's face turned white as a sheet.

"Will the stitches produce scars?" George asked, his voice small and trembling. "Will the stitches show, making me less than perfect? I couldn't stand being less than perfect."

The doctor said nothing but walked closer to George.

"Do you have to use a needle?" George asked, the hopelessness in his voice betraying the fact he already knew the answer. "Needles are so sharp! Hasn't science progressed beyond the needle? Men walk on the moon but you still use a needle!"

The doctor smiled and sprayed novacaine on the wound. Then he began stitching. It took 14 stitches across the wrestler's forehead to close the wound.

The man who inflicted the wound was Jim Dillon. While George was worrying about his beauty, Dillon was also receiving stitches. It was that kind of match.

"That hairy clown," Dillon said, before spitting out blood from a cut in his tongue. "I should have killed him when I had the chance. The next time it's going to take more than a referee and some threats to get me off him. There's nothing on Earth going to be able to get me off him the next time."

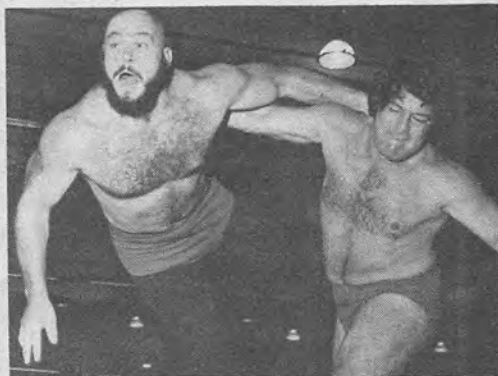

If the match proved one thing, it was something that has been proved many times before. There's no way to anticipate what Jim Dillon can do in a bout.

George asked what many others have asked. And along with many others, his request was granted. Be-

When a corkscrew is pitted against an airplane spin — sometimes both can lose

THE SPECIAL WEAPONS THAT FAILED

Paul Jones sends Ivan Koloff on his way across the ring (above) in an attempt to weaken him to apply his finishing hold, the airplane spin. However, Ivan succeeds first as he corkscrews Paul (above left). But Paul is not shaken by Ivan's specialty. Jones succeeds finally (below) but he gets so dizzy he falls from the ring and Koloff takes immediate advantage (opposite page) and stomps on Jones.

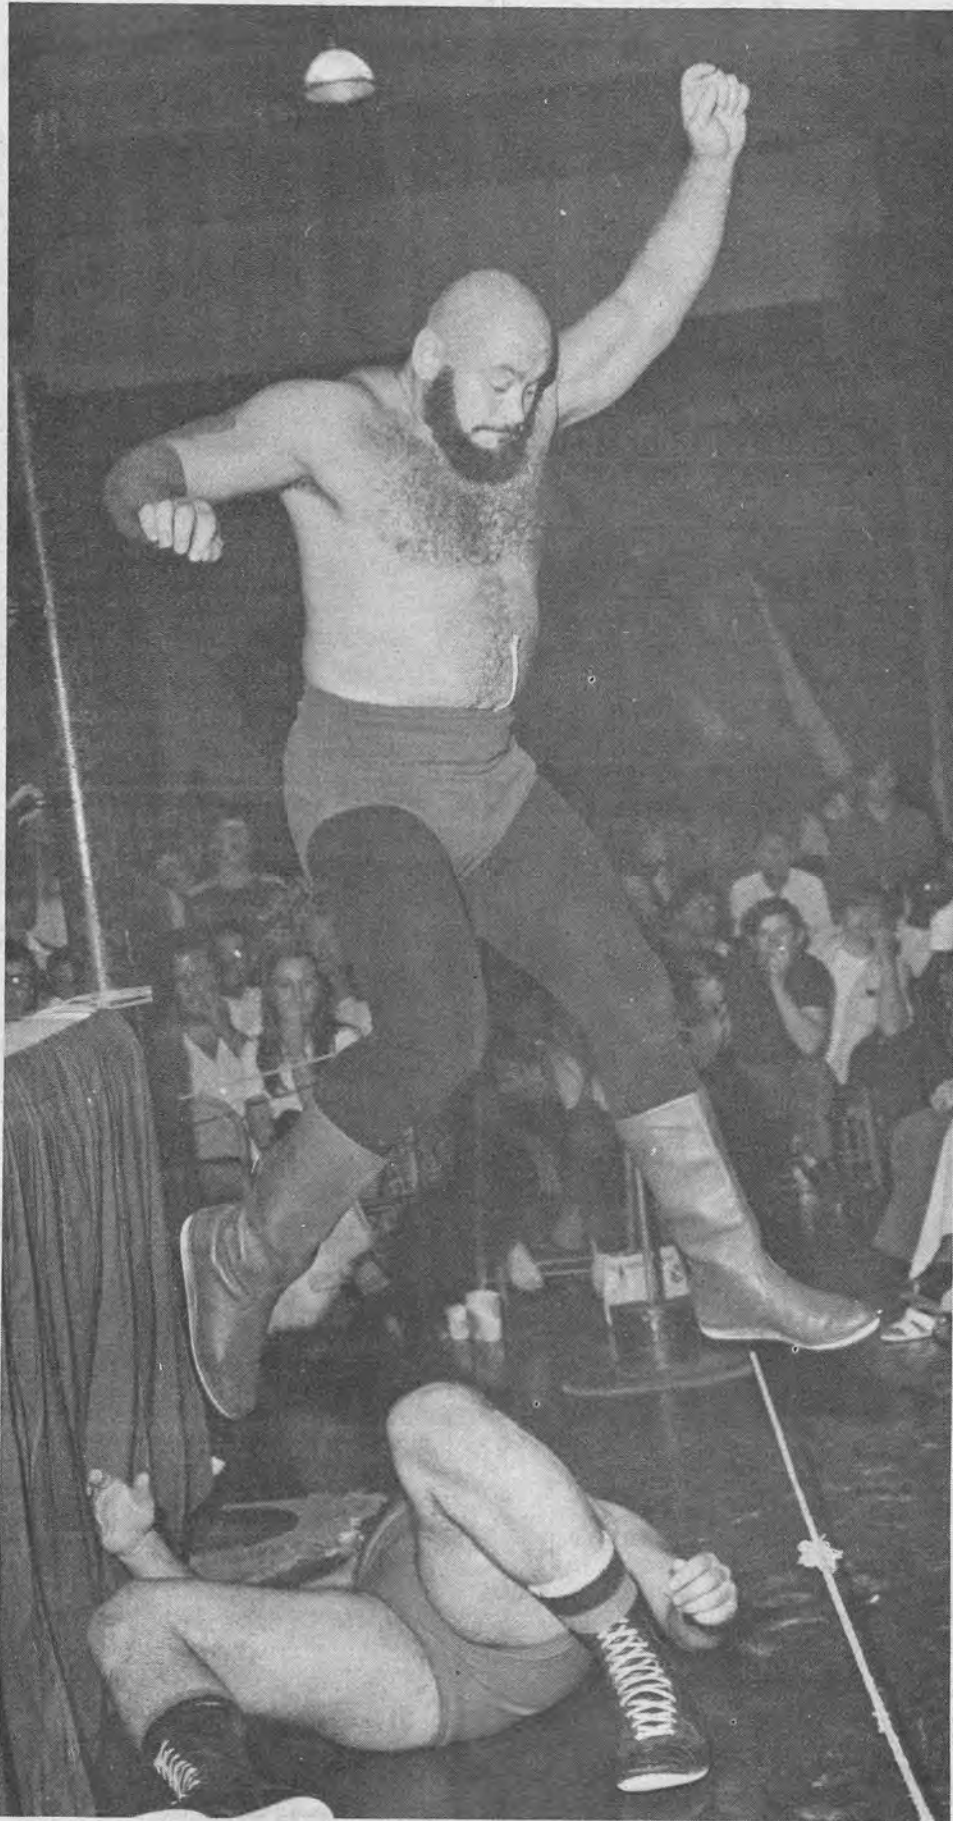

THE AIRPLANE SPIN has meant defeat for many of Paul Jones' opponents. When Ivan Koloff executes his corkscrew hold, agony is the result for his victims. Each man is justifiably proud of his favorite hold's efficiency. It was inevitable that they would challenge each other to prove superiority.

"I'll corkscrew him into oblivion!" Ivan promised before the match. "I've seen amusement park rides more dangerous than that pathetic airplane spin!"

Jones was equally confident, exclaiming, "When I get him in my airplane spin, the match'll be over. Koloff will choke on his boasts. The corkscrew is a joke that's been taken seriously too long."

Contrary to what he said, however, Jones took the corkscrew very seriously, as of course he should. He practiced for weeks falling in a way to minimize the corkscrew's damage. Paul applied himself diligently. By the night of the match, he was confident the corkscrew couldn't do him any real damage.

He was proven right. He didn't expect, though, his undoing would be his own airplane spin!

The match began and Koloff roared out of his corner. He wanted to end the match early by a series of devastating corkscrews. He quickly applied the corkscrew on Jones and Paul tumbled to the canvas.

The weeks of training paid off. Paul rolled with the momentum and sprang to his feet unhurt. Koloff's eyes almost bugged out of his head when he saw Jones smiling and ready for more.

Ivan became desperate. His lips curled into an ugly snarl and he charged at Jones. Paul was ready for him.

One instant Koloff was a charging bull and in the next instant he was the helpless victim of Paul Jones' airplane spin. Paul grinned as he spun around and around and around. The grin disappeared when he realized Koloff was not weakening.

Paul continued to spin, determined to make Ivan helplessly dizzy. Eventually, his spins slowed down and became more erratic. Finally, Paul's knees buckled and both he and Koloff crashed to the canvas. Paul Jones had made himself dizzy!

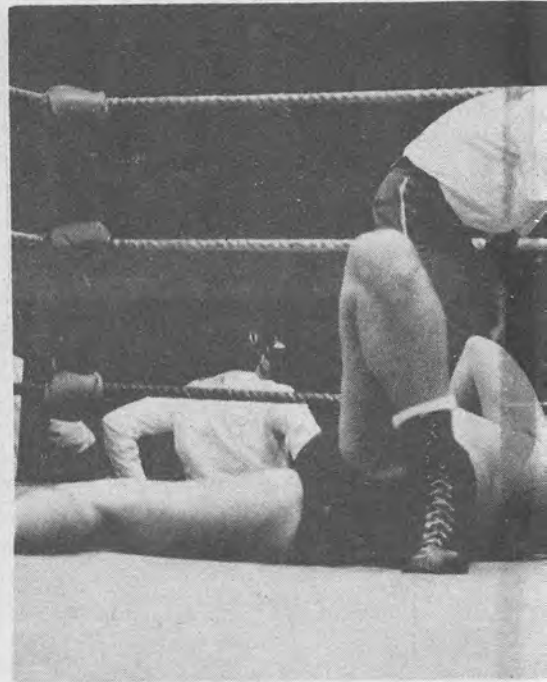

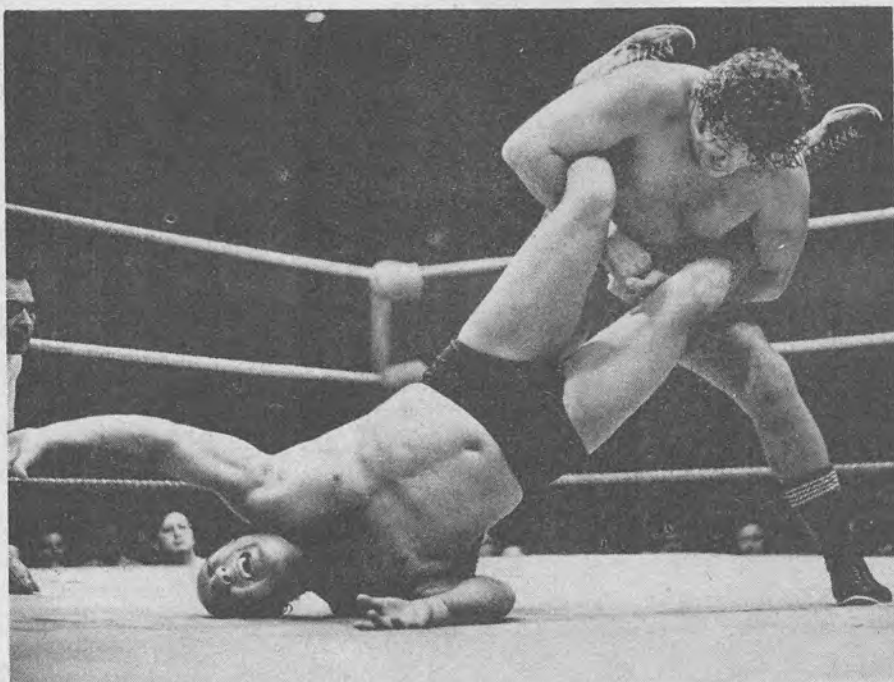

Though both men's equilibrium had been impaired, Koloff was the first to get to his feet. Stumbling but determined, he shook his head and approached Jones. With enormous concentration, he grabbed Paul's head and twisted it in a devastating corkscrew.

Jones tried to counter the hold. The dizziness was too much for him, however, and he was hurled across the ring. Paul hit the ropes and toppled over them.

Koloff went after him. He leaped over the ropes and crashed down on Paul's fallen body. The referee demanded he stop but Koloff wanted more. He kept smashing kicks into Paul. The referee disqualified him and the match went to Jones.

Afterwards, Paul admitted, "We both failed. I didn't beat him with my airplane spin though I managed to nullify his corkscrew. Now we both have to go back to the old drawing board and improve. Wait until next time, though!" □

For a few glorious moments Billy Robinson realized the dream for which he'd worked so long and hard. He was—if only temporarily—the A.W.A. world heavyweight champion!

BILLY ROBINS A.W.A. CHAM FOR A FEW H

AS BILLY ROBINSON sat in the dressing room of the Chicago arena, his thoughts turned to a championship match held in the same city over a year ago.

He remembered the joy he felt as it seemed like the A.W.A. championship title would be wrested from Verne Gagne and finally, after all these years, be his.

His body gave an involuntary shudder as he recalled the heartbreak he felt as Gagne hurled him over the ropes. Gagne was disqualified, the loser and still champion. As he remembered the incident, Robinson discovered his fists clenched and his knuckles white.

"A man," Billy reasoned, "has to do anything to remain champion. It was the smart thing for Gagne to do, throw me out of the ring and retain his title. You can't blame a man for being smart."

Billy looked down at his fists. They were still clenched. He realized his anger at Gagne would never listen to reason. His emotions were beyond his control.

After the evening and its controversy was over, Billy would go to sleep with his fists still clenched tightly.

Before the match, in the other dressing room, Verne Gagne fitted the championship belt around his waist like he had done thousands of times before. It was an action Billy Robinson had only done in his dreams.

The ritual of fastening the belt has become part of Gagne's method of psyching himself up before a match, mentally preparing himself to meet his opponent. Verne too remembered his last match with Billy, and how he had retained the title. Verne hadn't been proud of the victory but it had to be done. Verne would do it again; he told himself, if the same situation arose.

So the two men entered the arena and strode purposefully toward their respective corners. The tension was etched on their faces. Each man was prepared to do anything necessary in order to walk back to the dressing room with the belt firmly around his waist.

The fans who filled the arena also remembered the match a year before. The ovation for Verne was polite, for they respected his accomplishments. Robinson's ovation was thunderous, for they didn't respect Gagne's devious method of retaining the title in the last bout. Robinson, they felt, deserved the title and they hoped they'd see what they felt was justice triumph.

Within the first minute, it was apparent Gagne and Robinson were two great scientific wrestlers, almost perfectly matched. Robinson's arm take-downs and flashing footwork repeatedly brought the crowd to its feet time and time again.

Gagne employed his extensive repertoire of scientific holds. The crowd was visibly in awe of the champion's knowledge and skill. Both men were, in their own way, champions.

The first fall went to Verne. He levelled Billy with a devastating drop kick, immediately followed by a body press. Many believed the match would be over there and then, with Robinson unable to recover from the brutal drop kick.

The fears proved empty. Robinson stormed out of his corner, determined to turn the tide of the match. Robinson showed Gagne he'd struggle until the very last moment.

Again, the two great talents battled magnificently. Each battered the other with legal tactics, wearing his opponent down. Each gained and lost advantages, not through any fault of his own, but due to the desire of the victim.

Billy Robinson won the second fall trapping Gagne in a backdrop which he immediately followed up with a body press. The next fall meant everything.

The crowd knew not to expect anything as the third fall got underway. It would be survival of the best, or the luckiest. Of only that could they be certain.

The fall began and remained furious to the bitter end. Like he did a year ago, Gagne decided, after tremendous battling, to keep the title any way possible. What succeeded once could succeed again. He tried throwing Robinson over the ropes, getting himself disqualified, but still retaining the championship.

This time Robinson was ready for it. Instead of only Billy going out of the ring, both men toppled over the ropes. Robinson had held onto Gagne! The match was still on.

Both men scrambled to their feet and attempted to get through ropes. The strain of the match told on Gagne, whose legs became tangled in the ropes. As he fell, Verne accidentally hit the referee, who went sprawling.

CHIEF WAR EAGLE leaps high into the air off the ropes. He comes crashing down on his prone opponent. As likely as not, the match is now over.

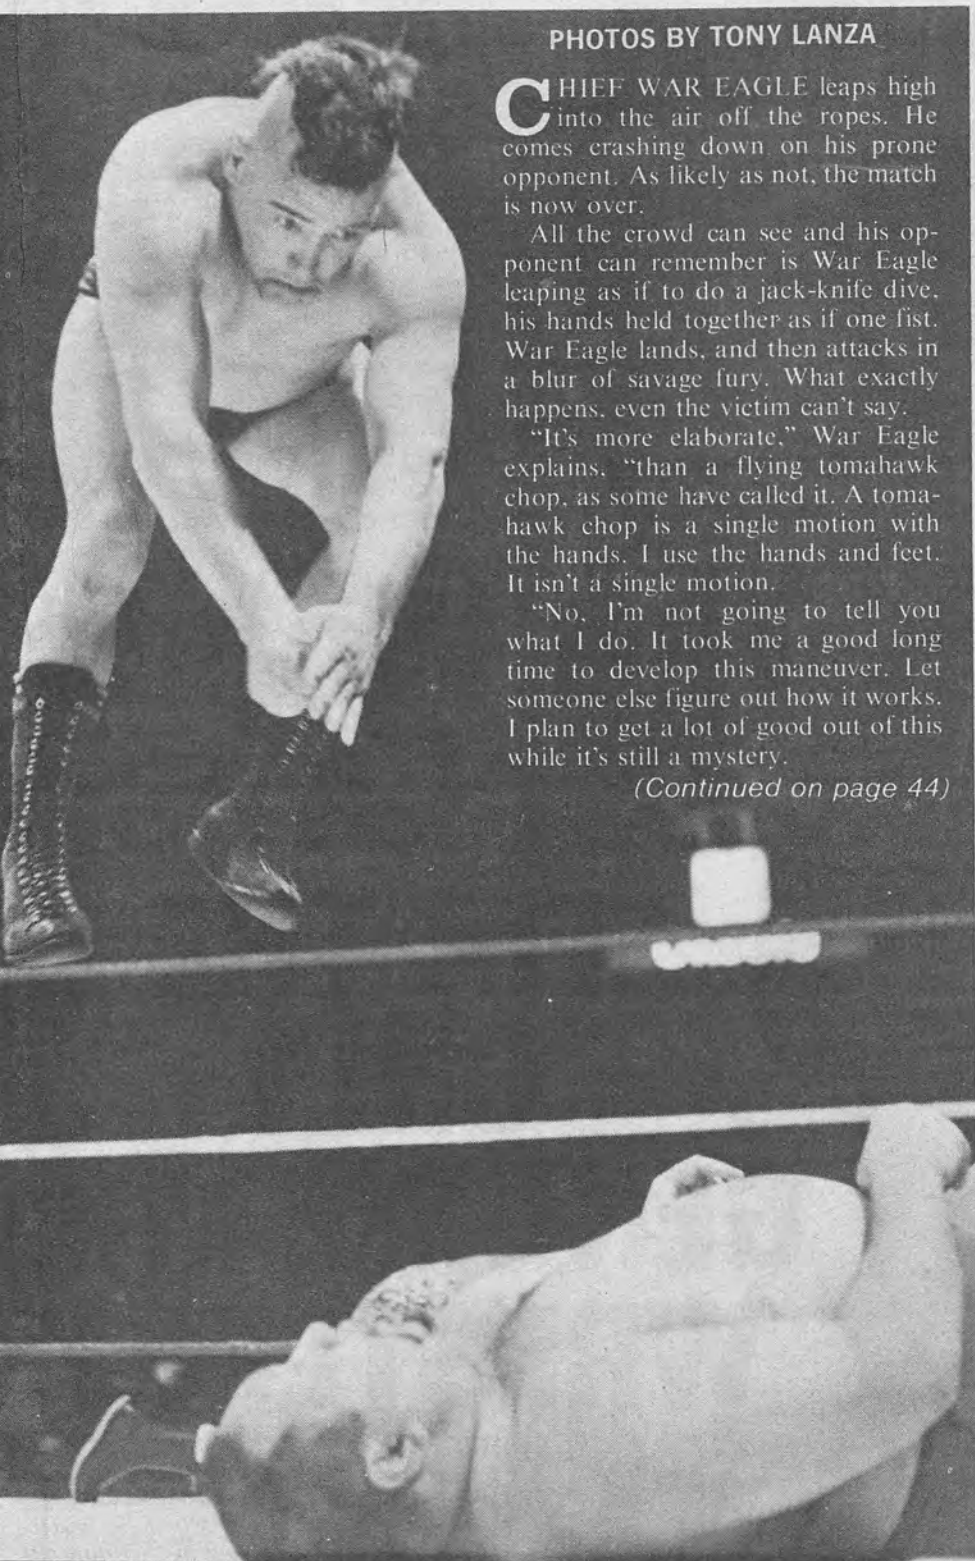

All the crowd can see and his opponent can remember is War Eagle leaping as if to do a jack-knife dive, his hands held together as if one fist. War Eagle lands, and then attacks in a blur of savage fury. What exactly happens, even the victim can't say.

"It's more elaborate," War Eagle explains, "than a flying tomahawk chop, as some have called it. A tomahawk chop is a single motion with the hands. I use the hands and feet. It isn't a single motion.

WRESTLER ON THE "HOTSEAT"

Tim Woods
Declares:
"I'M THE
ONLY
GENUINE MR.
WRESTLING"

HE'S ONE OF the cleanest sportsmen in the business. taught to follow rules when he was a young boy, he carried his learnings into professional wrestling. And because of this he has been successful. A box office attraction, fans flock to see him wherever he appears. Although the world title has eluded him, this man is one many people would love to see with the belt around his waist. Kids look up to him. Men admire him. Women are crazy about him. He symbolizes everything that's good. He's Tim Woods

The "Hotseat" is not a comfortable place to be. When we put a wrestler on the "Hotseat" we interview him. But it is more than just an interview. It is a no-holds-barred question and answer forum that probes beyond the obvious and seeks to find out what others are afraid to ask. The "Hotseat" pulls no punches and plays no favorites. It is the kind of in-depth feature you'll find nowhere else!

Wrestling with his mask on, Tim assumes the identity of Mr. Wrestling (above). El Gaucha doesn't care who he is, he's just trying to get out of trouble while partner Pancho Valdez is about to lend a hand. Tim displays the Georgia title belt (right) he won as Mr. Wrestling.

Q: Tim, welcome to the "Hotseat."

A: It's a pleasure to be here.

Q: Tim, putting the cards on the table, you're a very mild mannered guy. Many people have criticized you because of this. They say your temper never flares and that you're too nice to become champion. What's your reaction?

A: Well, it's always easy to be a ringside general. But if these same people were indeed doing what I was doing, it'd be a different story. I'm sure they'd change their minds considerably.

Q: But Tim. Many times when a guy fouls you you don't even give him a taste of their own medicine. Why?

A: Look. That's the way I was brought up. I wrestled by the rules throughout my amateur career and carried that principal over to my professional career. It's just my philosophy to value the rules. And as you can see, my career has been successful because I follow the rules.

Sure, I've had a couple of setbacks, a few disappointments too because I follow the rules. But I still feel you'll win out in the long run if you go according to the rulebook. If you cheat, or use borderline tactics, the victory you win will be a cheap one. I feel that the real champion is someone who can win by using the rules.

In a classic scientific battle, Tim loses both his footing and headlock, as former world champion Pat O'Connor shows some classy wrestling. Tim wrestles all his matches as scientifically as possible. "I'm a firm believer in the rules," he says. "Gaining a triumph against the rules is a cheap victory," clean cut Tim adds.

Q: Does that make Tim Woods the champion? After all, Jack Brisco has changed his style and become more aggressive, so to say.

A: That's a real tough question. You see, the champion has a real tough job. He's got everything to lose and nothing to gain. He's fighting for his life. He never has an easy match. He's always got a top contender in his backyard. He never has easy matches. Consequently he's got to be on his toes. He cannot afford to make one mistake.

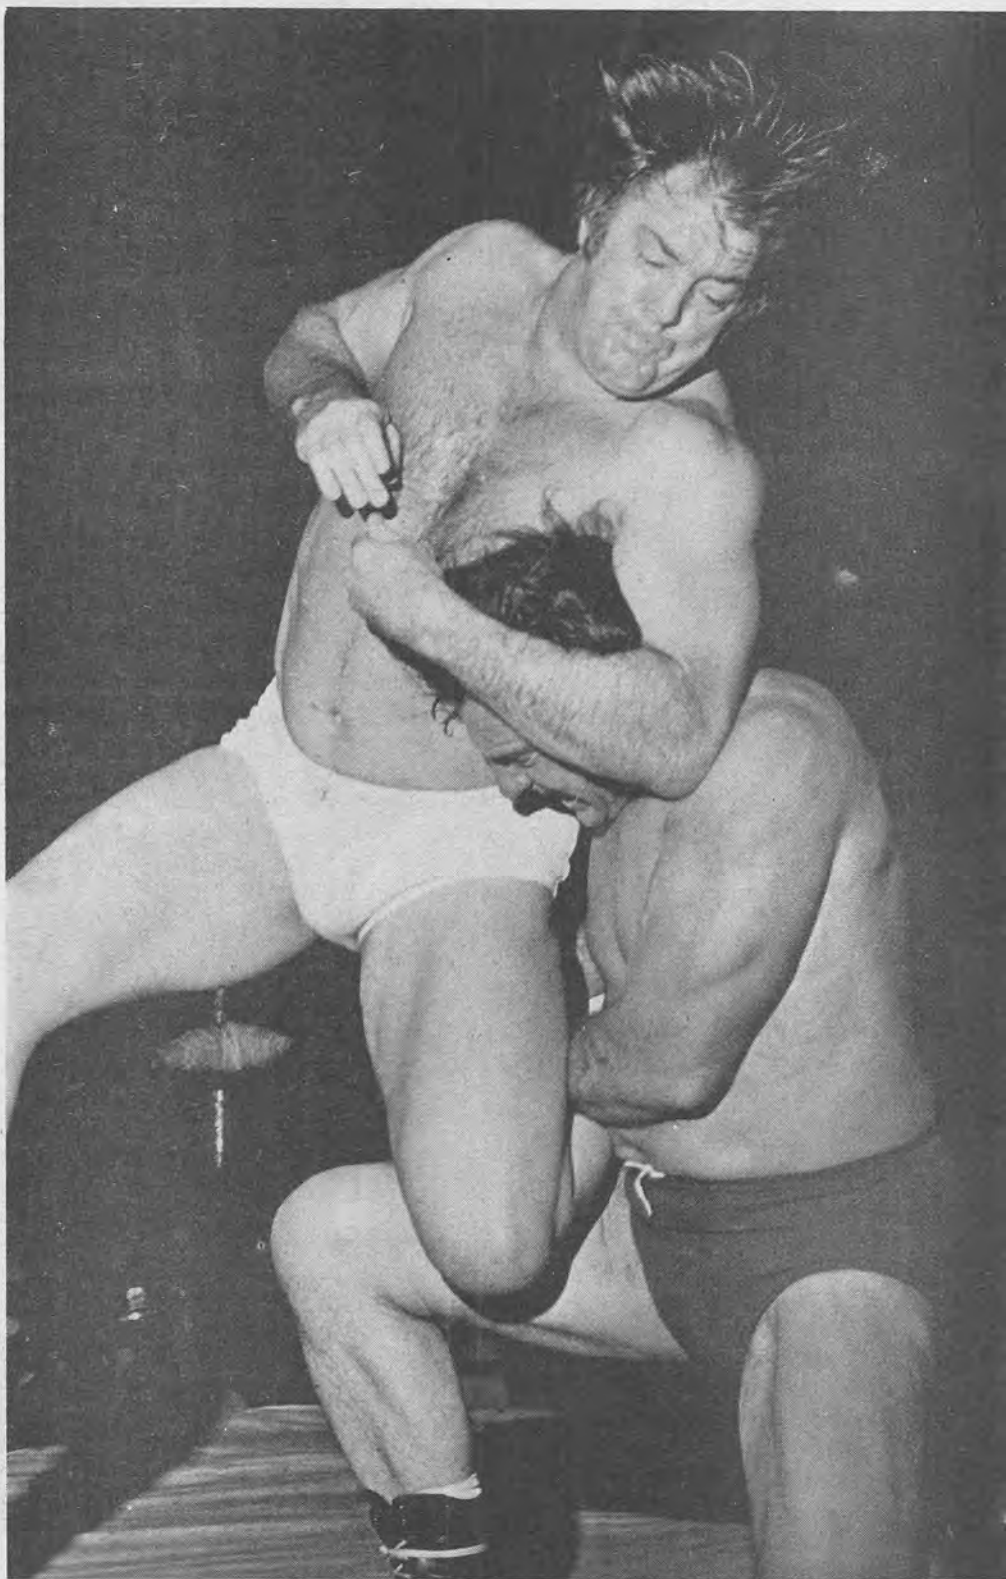

Perhaps this is the reason Jack has changed his style. I really don't know. If I were in his position I might have to change my style. But I've never been in that position. I have come as close as anyone could get to being world champion without being world champion. I hold victories over Jack, Dory Jr., Harley Race, Pat O'Connor, Lou Thesz and Gene Kiniski. All these men have been world champions. They were pin falls either before or after these men became champion.

Q: Is it because of the tough breaks you've had that you donned a mask and became Mr. Wrestling?

A: Originally, yes. When I came out of college, winning many, many titles, many top professional wrestlers were reluctant to give me a match. I was just bypassed. At best I'd end up with semi-main event matches.

Q: That's when you decided to change your identity?

A: Exactly. You see, there had never been a scientific masked wrestler. So I decided to become the first one. I called myself "Mr. Wrestling." I gave up all identity. And in doing so, I gained identity. I was the original Mr. Wrestling. Now, the only man to whom I have ever given the right to use that name is Mr. Wrestling II.

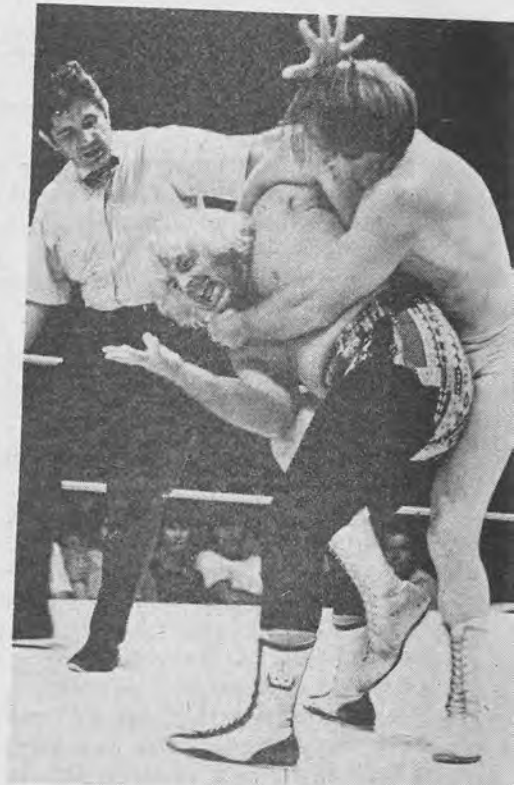

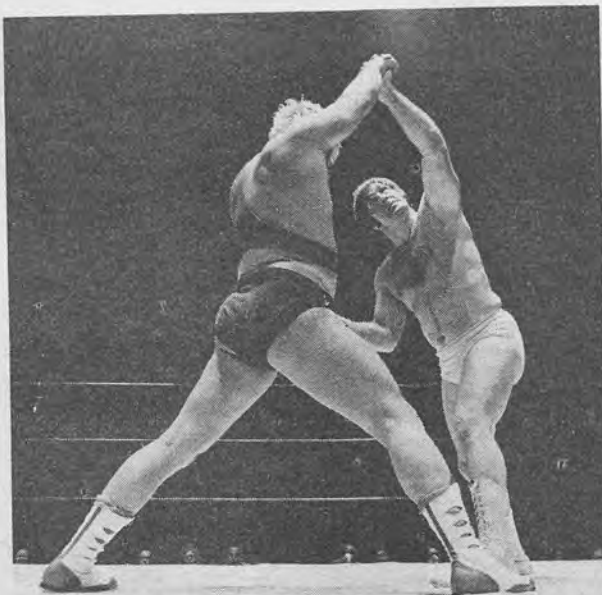

Q: In the not too distant past, Mr. Wrestling II and yourself have been quite irate with one another. He's changed his tactics and become a rule breaker. Do you feel he is jealous of you?

A: I don't know quite what to make of his change of heart. Thank goodness we've patched things up though. I feel that when I left for Japan and he was doing so well, he resented me returning. He had the public loving him and everything was going well. He even won the Georgia title. Then, a challenger was announced for the world title. He thought he'd get the shot. He didn't. I did, fresh from my tour. So I guess he resented me and that's what made him change. But like I said. That's water under the bridge cause I feel that...you see...what I'm trying to say is that I would welcome any one of those other men who call themselves Mr. Wrestling to wrestle me. That way we'll prove who the real one is.

A test of strength is giving Tim something to think about (above) as Bobby Shane has a momentary advantage. Bobby kicked Tim low, winning the strength test. One of the most popular men in the sport, Tim always has time for his fans (below). "The fans are wonderful to me," Tim says with a wide grin. "I try to give them any free time I can outside the arena." No matter where Tim wrestles, the fans are always after him for his autograph.

Q: Did you ever wrestle another Mr. Wrestling?

A: Oh yes. The match was very short and he was carried out. Enough said about that!

Q: Do you feel as if that mask is a championship belt to you?

A: In a sense it is. You see, the mask represents a lot to a lot of people. I wear white. That's for a reason. There are many fans who see the mask sticking out in their minds as a symbol. I have had people tell me that their children have associated themselves with me. The mask has had a good effect on their minds. It symbolizes a sense of good sportsmanship. For All American, clean living. To these people I represent this. I want to project that to them. Consequently, when I wear this mask, I take it very seriously. With or without the mask, I am a very proud man. Anything I have won I have worked very hard for.

Q: Tim, thank you for your time.

A: It's been a real pleasure! □

now. We're tag team partners again and friends. I'll tell you one thing though. He was one of the toughest men I ever faced. We squared off several times and man, he is one great wrestler.

Q: Tim, you wrestle all over the world. The fans know you both by names, Tim Woods and Mr. Wrestling. Are you glad your identity is out in the open?

A: Yes. I am. I was always proud of my name.

Q: What about other men who call themselves "Mr. Wrestling." Do you resent them?

A: Well, they know themselves to be what they are. They say that imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. Well, perhaps. I'm not flattered be-

BY NOW IT'S common knowledge. The Brisco family and the Funk family just do not dig each other.

Sure, they respect each other's abilities as athletes. They've been quoted as saying so many times. But both teams admit there is no room in the sport for both families. And they are constantly feuding over which clan is better.

What started their feud is simple. The whole thing began during the days Dory Jr. held the N.W.A. title. Jack was top contender through much of that time. In many of their matches, Jack's brother, Jerry, or Dory's brother, Terry, would run in and lend a "helping hand." That would lead to a four-man skirmish when all were present during one of Jack and Dory's title matches.

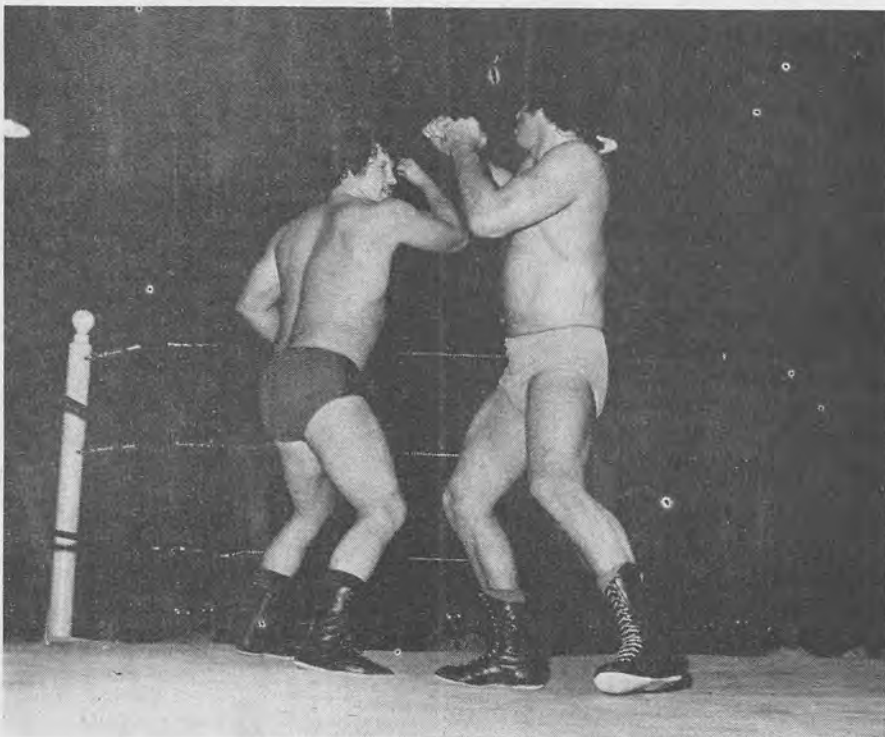

Little by little, the resentment grew. Each time Jack toppled Dory, Dory would retain the title by a technicality. Jack became fed up. So did Jerry. And they'd verbally knock the Funk clan. Dory and Terry resented the knocks. And so one of wrestling's hottest, slam bang feuds was born.

Since then, there have been many, many wild battles between the families. And controversy rages before and after each clash. Before their most recent battle, the usual hot, steaming controversy was present.

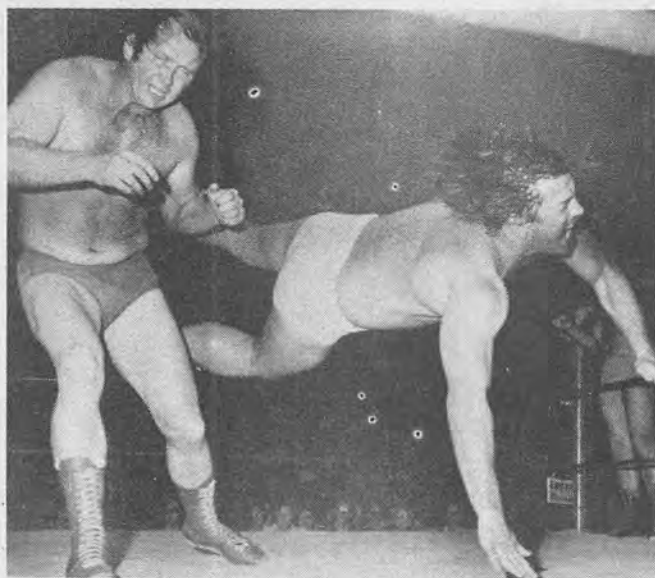

The Funks had wrestled the Briscos a few weeks previously in Florida. Florida has adopted the Brisco brothers. Everyone there, or almost everyone, loves Jack and Jerry. The Funks are not too well liked. So, right after the match, Dory and Terry claimed, "The referees here and the fans are all against us. We have all the cards stacked against us here. If the Briscos had any guts they'd meet us on our ground."

Whether or not Jack and Jerry had guts enough is unknown. But out of sheer pride they agreed to wrestle the Funks in their home state.

A few hours after Dory and Terry flew back to Texas, Jack and Jerry were on a jet headed for the Amarillo, Texas promoter's office. They were going to demand a match with Dory and Terry from promoter and wrestler Jerry Kozak. They had spent much money for airfare and didn't even know if they were going to get the match.

"I'm weary of this whole thing," Jerry admitted as Jack looked at his worried looking younger brother.

"I'm weary too," Jack agreed. "But look. This is the only way. We've both wrestled in Texas before, and whenever I've wrestled Dory there, or whenever you wrestle Terry, you know darn well everyone seems like they're against us. They make us look like we're comparable to The Sheik. But we'll have to ignore it."

In a few hours they were in Kozak's office demanding a match.

"Yeah," Kozak said. "I think we can get this match together. Here," he continued, shoving a piece of paper at Jack and Jerry. "Dory and Terry have already signed the contract. They knew you'd be here.

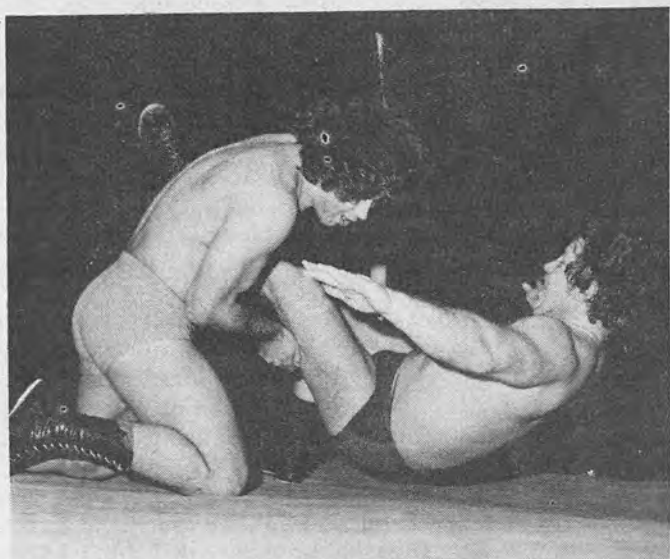

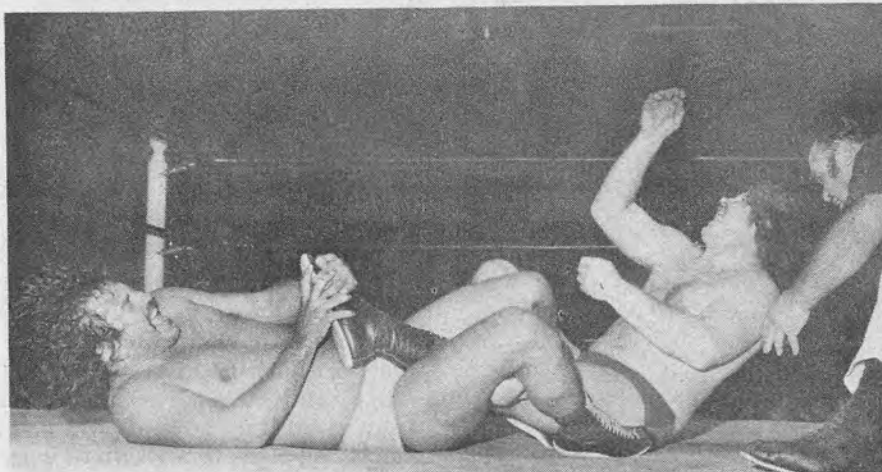

Now you guys just sign on the dotted line and the match is yours — tomorrow night."

Without hesitation, they signed.

The next night was a tense one for Jack and Jerry. As they entered the arena they were jeered loudly. A special security guard was posed at their dressing room door to avoid any hassle with fans.

Finally, the match was moments

Another one of his pet holds is the abdominal stretch. Here, the vicious Raul Castillo becomes its victim. The Chief also claims, "I can kill a man with the other hold if I land wrong."

"When I said it took me a long time to perfect this maneuver, I wasn't kidding. I must have worked and trained a good five years before it was ready to use in a match. And then, before it was perfected, I took a lot of lumps when it failed. Let the others take their lumps if they want to imitate me.

"I'll tell you where I got the idea for this, though. Did you ever see paintings or drawings of pteradactyls (prehistoric birds) in flight? If you look hard, you'll see what I mean. Study it. Study it hard."

An examination of a number of paintings of the prehistoric animal in flight revealed to a group of wrestling experts absolutely nothing. Perhaps War Eagle was kidding, perhaps not. Other theories about the maneuver's origin abound throughout the sport.

"It's something from his tribe," Raul Castillo believes, having been victimized by the maneuver. "Some Indian trick developed over the years to catch or kill an enemy as he travels through the woods. I have seen similar guerrilla tactics used by Castro in Cuba. This Indian maneuver, however, is much better."

Many believe this theory. It tends to make sense. Except, why hasn't any other great Indian wrestler used it?

"If it is an Indian maneuver," says Chief Wahoo McDaniel, "it's some secret of War Eagle's tribe. I don't think that's it, though. I'm more willing to believe it's all War Eagle's own. How he developed it, I don't know. I have to admit, though, it works."

It certainly works. War Eagle has had great success with it.

"People shouldn't worry," Wahoo points out, "where it comes from. If they want to avoid a lot of pain, they'd better start figuring out how to prevent it!"

So far, no one's been able to successfully counter whatever War Eagle is doing. No one knows where it comes from, but to their lasting regret, they know what it does! □

There was still one minute remaining when the match ended with Valentine victorious.

CALIFORNIA REPORT

By Larry Barnhizer

Moondog Mayne and Pat Patterson took their feud to Sacramento for a "no-disqualifications" match, perhaps the bloodiest in their series of brutal brawls.

Action began before the bell had stopped echoing in the arena. Pat flew from his corner. Mayne was overwhelmed and the first fall ended within 35 seconds!

Mayne was prepared when the second fall began. Grabbing Patterson, Moondog slammed his head repeatedly into the turnbuckle, splitting Pat's head wide open! Blood poured from the gash. Then, with a savage yell, Moondog hurled Patterson over the ropes to win the second fall.

When Patterson saw his own blood, he went berserk. He charged into his dressing room only to emerge instantly with a pair of brass knuckles. He repeatedly and sadistically used them on Mayne until Moondog was as bloody as Patterson. The referee stopped the carnage quickly, declaring both men too bloody to continue. The match ended in a draw.

The Great Pampero wrestled the Butcher until Sheik and his manager, Eddie Creatchman, decided to interfere. It was a bad move for the pair for the enraged Pampero had them both bleeding badly. It took promoter Mike Lebell and the referee to restore order as Pampero was choking Sheik with a chair.

Peter Maivia vanquished Rick Hunter... Mr. Saito battled Pepper Martin to a draw... John Tolos made it a rough night for John Birch... Peggy Patterson employed all her wrestling wiles to defeat Sandy Parker. ☐

ANGRY AT MOOLAH

In "Every Match She Wrestles May Be Her Last" (THE WRESTLER/October '74), the Fabulous Moolah is accused of hiring women wrestlers and training them to destroy Vicki Williams. I think this is horrible.

If it can be proven Moolah is doing this, then she should be stripped of her title. This is not what is done by a champion.

I hope for the sake of women wrestling, the fears of Moolah doing this horrible act prove unfounded.

SHEILA PAULETTE

A reader hopes Fabulous Moolah is innocent of the charge that she is hiring women wrestlers to wipe out Vicki Williams.

JENNIFER MEINTZ

WELL DONE, MEPHISTO!

Even if you don't like the way the Great Mephisto breaks the rules, you must envy the way he treats his women, as he revealed in his "Hotseat" interview (INSIDE WRESTLING/October '74). He treats them like slaves, just as they should be!

Mephisto doesn't let his women speak in public because the wise men of his country realized women had nothing to say! Women are treated by Mephisto as inferior beings, only fit to serve him and bear children. It was a black day in the world's history when women stopped walking behind camels.

Keep up the good work, Mephisto. You're the smartest guy around.

Kusatsu smashes the bloody Wahoo over and over with judo chops. They took their toll as he knocked McDaniel to the mat and continued the brutal punishment. But Wahoo rallied and gave Kusatsu a taste of his own medicine.

chairs from spectators and pummelled each other with them. Local police were called in to put an end to the hostilities.

McDaniel and Kusatsu, however, were far from done with each other.

"He'll only run away if we wrestle again," claimed McDaniel. "He got lucky last night when he threw me onto the floor. Next time, I want a strap match so he won't be able to run. There's nothin' like a strap match to separate the men from the boys."

The Great Kusatsu surprised Wahoo when he not only accepted a strap match, but added, "I also want the match to be held inside a cage. That way there's almost no possibility of him getting away from me."

In Japan, a strap match is known as an "Indian strap match," and in order for a wrestler to be victorious he must drag his beaten opponent around the ring three times.

The referee for this particular match would stand outside the cage, so any dirty wrestling would be virtually impossible for him to control—and there was plenty!

Once the referee secured the strap to both men, they stepped inside the cage and the door was locked. As soon as the bell rang, McDaniel yanked Kusatsu to his knees and wrapped the strap around his neck. He choked Kusatsu until the great Japanese wrestler was nearly blue in the face. Then he slammed his head into the cage door. A huge gash opened in the center of Kusatsu's forehead and the blood streamed down his face.

It looked like this would turn into the quickest end to a wrestling match in Japan's history. But the furious Wahoo didn't stop there. He began to pummel Kusatsu unmercifully, landing some very damaging Tomahawk chops.

The referee tried to open the door to restrain McDaniel, but Wahoo just looked at him, then down at the unmoving Kusatsu, and said, "Forget it, ref. This guy's finished for quite awhile."

McDaniel then began to drag the badly beaten Japanese around the canvas in victory.

He had just completed the second trip around the canvas when Kusatsu brought the SRO crowd to its feet and McDaniel to the floor by grabbing the strap and yanking on it. Kusatsu took McDaniel completely by surprise.

Bloody and dazed, Kusatsu sprang to his feet and began kicking McDaniel. He then started directing karate chops to McDaniel's head. Blood spurted from Wahoo's nose and from a gash above his right eye.

He threw his arms around Kusatsu's waist in an effort to bring him down, but Kusatsu used his fists as hammers and drove them into Wahoo's skull. McDaniel staggered, then sunk to his knees. Kusatsu wound up his big right fist and let fly with a closed-fist karate smash that can break bricks. McDaniel—as dazed as he was—anticipated the blow, and did all he

Kusatsu hit Wahoo with a judo chop at the exact instant Wahoo hit the Japanese star with a tomahawk chop. The result (above). Wahoo is unconscious and Kusatsu is in the same condition just a few feet away. Although the match was ruled a draw, Kusatsu (right) feels he won. "I am much better than the Indian," he contends. Both wrestlers are bucking for a rematch but promoters are hesitant to have such a bloodbath in their arenas.

Kusatsu's punch missed by inches and his momentum carried him past Wahoo. McDaniel knew he must end the battle quickly, for the accumulation of karate chops and kicks had given him double vision.

He wrapped the strap around Kusatsu's neck then spun him around like a top. At the same instant, Kusatsu and McDaniel threw right hand bombs in an effort to end the battle. Just as Kusatsu's right hand karate chop was slamming into the left side of Wahoo's head, McDaniel's right hand Tomahawk was slamming into the left side of Kusatsu's head. They both fell like wounded animals, and laid motionless on the floor.

After a few moments, the referee began to holler, "Get up! One. One of you get up! Two." He made it to 10 and had plenty to spare before either man came to.

The referee ruled it a double countout, with neither man the winner. It was a rare ending to a wierd and rare kind of match. □

One of the greatest lessons Hito learned was the importance of ritual. He quickly understood the elaborate movements before battle instilled fear into an opponent while mentally preparing one self for combat. Ritual is another art over which Hito is a master. He demonstrates his mastery before matches.

Sometimes Hito wears the garb of the samurai warrior. No opponent can help be impressed by his lightning-swift passes with his samurai sword. His cold grin appears when the sword passes are completed as he detects a glimmer of fear in his opponent.

His sumo ritual may not be as frightening but it's just as effective.

The exercises display an awesome muscular control. No opponent can ignore what such skill means in a wrestling match.

It becomes immediately apparent how successfully the exercises strike fear into Hito's opponents. Very few are able to find their rhythm. It has been set off kilter by imagining the implications of Hito's ritual. Many times the match is won before the opening bell.

Even if the opponent isn't psychologically crippled before the match begins, Hito has enough dangerously illegal maneuvers and holds to make 15 wrestlers be considered terrors. His sumo and samurai training come in handy when he wishes to render a victim lifeless. And he always wishes to render a victim lifeless.

Mr. Hito's decision to come to North America was based on one consideration—money. He wants it and has come to this continent to get as much as humanly possible.

"I have trained selflessly all my life," Hito says, "and it's about time it paid off. I have sacrificed like few men have and I expect to be rewarded for it. Rewarded well."

"I'll make my fortune over the broken bodies of my opponents. I will dominate wrestling like no man ever has before. People will pay any price to see me. And once I become reknown, the prices will be very steep. Very steep indeed."

"Professional wrestlers will become the sacrifices to my fortune. I have learned it's kill or be killed. It is a lesson they, too, will learn. They will also learn another lesson—wrestle Mr. Hito and you will be killed!"

Every wrestler who grapples against Mr. Hito knows he has the power to back up every single one of his threats. He has the power—and the desire. □

The match features different styles and different tactics but one thing all the women shared in common—the desire to win! It's a brutal, savage free-for-all, a match where survival is truly to the fittest. Miss Wrestling and Daisy Mae show their opponents how much pain must be suffered if they hope to win the battle and $1,000.

The line was broken up when Sue Green wrenched herself free, releasing her victim at the same time. It started a chain reaction and soon all the women were free. Then they were ready for action!

And the action followed fast and furiously. The ring was filled with punching, clawing, women battering each other mercilessly. There was one-on-one action, girls gang-ing up on a sole victim, and groups swinging away at whomever stepped into range. The ferocity of the wrestling was awesome. Many fans were too stunned by the exhibition to even cheer!

One by one, however, the girls were thrown over the ropes. But before they crashed to the concrete many took some skin and hair off their conqueror. No girl went docilely over the ropes.

When six girls were left, they again found themselves connected in a chain—a chain of women yanking at each other's legs. Some girls had both legs pulled while others had their hands full but legs untouched. The screams from those captured filled the arena.

This too ended but not without two more girls being thrown over the ropes. Again the elimination began. The four girls kicked, punched, and did anything imaginable in attempts to send their opponents onto the concrete floor.

Eventually, there were three girls left. Vicki Williams, Sue Green, and the masked Miss Wrestling stared at each other cautiously, waiting for one or the other to move. Then, Sue's and Vicki's eyes met. The two girls nodded quickly. In a rush, they grabbed Miss Wrestling and hurled her over the ropes.

That left Vicki and Sue to battle it out for the $1,000. The two girls, though they had been through many rigorous and brutal brawls, showed no signs of fatigue. The excitement of being so close to the prize pumped the adrenalin through their bodies. Their strength and speed would not leave them until the match was over.

The battle the two girls had would have been great if no other action had preceeded it. It was a wild brawl with both girls trying to flip the other over the ropes. Finally, Sue Green decided on a do-or-die maneuver.

Using her powerful body as a battering ram, she raced across the ring in an attempt to barrel Vicki over the ropes. But Vicki timed her opponent's run perfectly. And using Sue's momentum, she flipped her over the ropes.

So Vicki was handed the $1,000 check, money she more than earned. And the fans learned once again that girls' wrestling can provide some of the most exciting matches anywhere! □ fore entering the ring, an enraged Jim Dillon was searched for foreign objects.

"If he really wants protection," Dillon sneered while being checked over, "he'd better cut off my hands and legs. That's all I need against a clown like George!"

"You'll regret that!" George shouted from his corner. "No man calls me, God's perfect creature, a clown!"

After being checked over and found clean, Dillon climbed through the ropes. When the bell rang, all he attacked George with was his vast, accumulated knowledge of illegal tactics. All George had with which to defend himself was an equally vast knowledge of illegal tactics. In that regard, neither man could be said to have an advantage.

Dillon gleefully ran at his opponent, determined to prove the search wasn't going to help. George was overwhelmed at first by the on-slaught from Dillon. Before George felt the match had begun, he was in trouble.

It took the skilled, cruel fingers of Dillon only seconds to tear the flesh from George's forehead, making the blood gush through the shredded skin. In fear and agony, George desperately spun free of Dillon's clutches and mounted an attack of his own.

Though the blood dripping into his eyes blinded him, George showed he could dish it out as well as take it. The match became an encyclopedia of tactics no wrestling association would dare sanction.

First it was Dillon with the advantage, then George. The men traded punches, flips, kicks, and combinations of moves that defied any description other than viciously illegal. That either man managed to survive is miraculous.

Dillon actually suffered the more serious wound though the crowd didn't see the result. George reached into Jim's mouth and tore away skin from his cheeks and roofs of his mouth. Though Dillon bled profusely, he swallowed most of the blood rather than show George he had been wounded.

The match reached its climax when George was trapped upside down in the ropes. He dangled helplessly while Dillon came in to attack.

Dillon came at him feet first. While George's blood stained the canvas, Jim smashed his foot into his victim's chest and head. All George could do was scream and hope his agony would soon be relieved by unconsciousness.

The referee finally managed to pull Dillon off his bloodied victim. George crumpled to the canvas as the referee held Jim back.

"Let me at the clown!" Dillon screamed, trying to get passed the official.

"If you don't back off now," the referee shouted, "you're disqualified!"

"Let me go!" Dillon responded.

"You're disqualified!" the official announced, "and if you don't leave the arena now, you won't wrestle anywhere for the next six months! I promise you that!"

So Dillon walked dejectedly back to the dressing room as Gorgeous George Jr. was helped to his feet. Then he was stitched up after wobbling back to his dressing room.

Looking anxiously in the mirror after the medical attention, George announced, "I'm still beautiful! Nothing can change that! Nothing!"

All was well in the life of Gorgeous George Jr. □

BILLY ROBINSON

Verne demonstrates why he has been able to be champion so long as he perfectly executes an armlock, sending pain shooting up Billy's arm and shoulder. Robinson manages to counter the move, however.

All Robinson saw was that Gagne had fallen. He immediately pounced on Verne. The referee, still shaky, didn't see the foot entangled in the rope. The referee declared Robinson the winner and new A.W.A. world's champion.

For an instant, Billy didn't react. He was overwhelmed. Then he became ecstatic. He kissed the belt which was handed to him and bounded out of the ring.

Meanwhile, Verne argued his case before the referee. Then he argued his case in front of officials. The crowd was cheering Robinson's victory and knew nothing of the debate.

While Billy Robinson exulted in the dressing room, the arguments continued. Robinson was also unaware of the controversy, enjoying the ecstasy of being champion. "Champion Billy Robinson" he repeated over and over again.

When the smoke cleared, Billy Robinson was no longer champion. A compromise had been worked out which had the belt belonging to no one. The winner of a match held in Chicago Stadium September 7 would be the A.W.A. champion.

When they told Robinson he was no longer the champion, Billy just sat there stunned. Then he threw his shoulders back, straightened up, and set his jaw firmly.

He promised, "Now that I know what it feels like to be champion, I'll do anything in my power to feel like that again. The next time I wrestle Verne Gagne, no power on Earth will take the title from me again." □ away from beginning. Dory and Terry entered first, their international tag team title belts around their waists.

Then came Jack and Jerry. And the boos were outrageously loud.

"I hate this," Jerry said. "It's just hard to get used to."

"Relax," Jack told him. "Let's do what we have to and get out of here."

After some brief introductions the match began. And all hell broke loose at the opening bell. All four ran into the ring and began slugging wildly.

"Get out!" the referee ordered. "Everybody out of the ring or I'll disqualify you all!"

All four obeyed and stepped outside the ropes.

"One guy from each team!" the angry referee ordered. So Dory and Jack started for their respective teams.

The advantage switched back and forth several times. Terry got in several times and, rather than wrestle, he let his temper flare and turned the match into a brawl again.

Finally, Jack locked Dory in a

The Most Amazing Book Ever Published!

Retire tomorrow.

My name is Mike Warren, and I'm happy to say I don't worry about bills anymore. Oh, I used to grind and sweat and swear, too, when the first of the month rolled around . . . let this go another month, pay a little on that. Payday was "exchange day." In fact, I was so busy working for everybody else that I never had time to work for myself.

For most of my life is a day-to-day struggle . . . a losing effort to get ahead of car payments, mortgage payments, insurance payments . . . payments for groceries, gas, dry cleaning, tuition, clothing. Payments, payments, payments . . . it goes on and on. Where does it end? Like the Red Queen in Alice In Wonderland, the faster we go, the behinder we get!

But, as I say, all that is behind me now. These days I spend my time as I like . . . because I've found the secret of success. What secret, you say? Don't laugh, now . . . I make my money betting on the horses!

I can hear you laughing anyway. Well, go ahead, have a chuckle on me. I don't mind . . . I have my money to console me. More money than I ever saw before. Money to buy what I need . . . and fulfill my family's needs. Money to go where I want. Money to do what I like. And—believe it or not—all my money comes from one place: the Thoroughbred race track.

Yes, friend, I can beat the races. I can go to any race track and pick up what I need—a hundred or a thousand—when ever I need it. Of course, I don't go every day . . . I don't press. Why take advantage of a good thing? Some days I'd rather work on my sports car, or play tennis, or take my kids to the zoo, or just loaf around the pool. But I could go to the race track every day if I wanted to . . . and, I suspect, win day after day after day. Not bad for a kid with a high school education, eh? This has been going on for over three years now—every since I quit my old job to start living my life the way I want to.

The other day I paid a visit to my local race track to pick up some spare change. I guess I really saw, for the first time, the looks of anguish and despair on the faces of many in the crowd . . . tearing up losing tickets, cursing their luck, getting ready to go back to jobs they hate. It occurred to me that I might be able to help some of those people . . . as well as many who have never been to the races in their lives and don't know the first thing about horses. Besides, I figure I don't even have to go to the race track anymore. All I have to do is put my secrets on paper and sell them for a profit. I reason that people would have to be crazy not to part with a few dollars if I could show them the road to retirement tomorrow . . . with enough money to do what they want. A vacation, new clothes, a car . . . or just do what I do—spend more time with the family and watch the kids grow.

So here goes. I'm going to let you in on the secret of my success: four little "systems" that work at any Thoroughbred flat track in America, under all types of weather conditions, year 'round. You can play one race a day or several . . . win, place, or show . . . bet a little or bet a lot. These four ingenious systems should provide you with whatever income you desire and are suited to either conservative or maximum style of play.

I call my four little systems 4 For A Fortune—and I've wrapped them up in an easy-to-read book you can finish in just one evening at home. 4 For A Fortune tells you everything you need to know to start cashing big at the track. You'll quickly find out why most people beat themselves at the races . . . and why a select few, who use their wits and patience, walk away with the fat money.

Keep in mind that you don't have to know a thing about horse racing in order to reap the rich rewards of these four systems. All you must do is follow some simple rules (strictly!) that will select the eventual winner in most races . . . and put more money in your pockets than you ever dreamed of!

But don't take my word for it. See for yourself. I'll be happy to send you your own copy of 4 For A Fortune. Just clip and mail the coupon below and enclose $10. Read 4 For A Fortune at your leisure . . . then give these four little systems a try. If you aren't well on your way to retirement in just 30 days, let me know . . . I'll return your $10 immediately, no questions asked.

So if you've ever said to yourself, " . . . tomorrow . . . next week . . . next year . . . as soon as we get caught up . . . " stop dreaming and act now. Why let another day slip by when you could be living the way you'd like to—the way I do.

You can't afford to wait.
Do it today.

FUNKS VS. BRISCOS

Jack tries unsuccessfully for a second suplex slam but Dory is not about to fall to the same maneuver twice! The more the two families wrestle, the harder it gets for either to overwhelm the other. It has gotten to the point where the match becomes a street brawl.

suplex slam and won the first fall. By the way, that's the maneuver Harley Race used on Dory to win the N.W.A. title.

In a wild turnaround of events, the Funks overpowered the Briscos and the second fall was theirs.

So far, it appeared Jack and Jerry were getting a fair match. The referee seemed very impartial.

Dory sails into Jack with a flying kneedrop off the top rope as Terry comes in to take advantage of the weakened Jack, a typical move in these bouts.

That didn't last too long. The Funks were able to topple the Brisco boys and that's when the real fireworks began.

"You're blind!" Jerry yelled at the referee. "It's a lousy, hometown decision!"

"Shut up you creep!" Terry yelled back. "You don't know what the hell you're talking about!"

"Let's get out of here," Dory told Terry. At that they climbed through the ropes. Jack and Jerry went right after them and a slugfest began on the arena floor!

It was broken up when the commissioner threatend to suspend all four from wrestling anywhere for a month.

The Funks were going back to the dressing room and the Briscos went back into the ring, calling them back.

"You cowards!" Jerry exclaimed. "Get back here!"

Terry started to but Dory pulled him back to the dressing room.

"We'll get 'em again in Florida," Jack assured Jerry. "Then they'll do the cryin'. We can't get a fair shake here no way."

So the feud gets hotter and hotter. And an end is nowhere in sight in the future. ☐

AN ATHLETIC

CHAMPION BODY

STRENGTH - ENDURANCE - RESILIENCE -

ROTATION-POWER MAKES YOUR MUSCLES

GROW

THIS IS THE SOLUTION YOU HAVE BEEN LOOKING FOR:

THE DYNO-TRAINER FROM GERMANY
WITH BUILT-IN FLYWHEEL-ROTOR (UP TO 2800 RPM)

Fully Automatic

For the first time in the history of PHYSICAL FITNESS here is the EXERCISER which will give you DOUBLE ACTION PLUS DOUBLE BENEFITS!

IN 67 EXCITING DAYS....!

YOUR NEGLECTED MUSCLES ARE IN FOR THE SURPRISE OF YOUR LIFE.

Your blood vessels will widen and will carry more blood. Your joints will enjoy being "greased" again. All inner organs will receive fresh impulses. Your Circulatory System will carry more of the vitally important build-up elements to your muscles. Inactive parts of your lungs will be filled with air. Your chest will widen by 5 - 8 inches. Arms and legs will develop an athletic shape as never before. Flabby fat vanishes inch by inch, including the least desired one on your belly. A new exerciser, the DYN0-TRAINER enables everybody to train sensibly, i.e. it will adapt itself automatically to your condition and to your age.

WE'LL SHOW YOU HOW TO DO IT RIGHT! DON'T GO THE WRONG WAY!

1) a FLAT CHEST won't simply disappear because you are jogging or walking. Only a targeted development of the PECTORALS (chest) and SERRATUS MAGNUS (side chest) muscles will achieve this. The DYN0-TRAINER will do not only this, but simultaneously also add another 1/3 gallon of air-volume to your lungs, which, in turn, will improve your ENDURANCE considerably.

2) an uncomfortable MIDRIF won't go away with swimming or doing kneebends. Probably it will be in the way there! But the DYN0-TRAINER will alternately work your stomach muscles hard, it will knead and pummel and massage them, and reach even deep into the digestive tract. No flabby fat can survive such treatment!

3) no DROOPING SHOULDERS or ROUND-BACKS can be corrected by doing the skip-rope or by playing hockey. Only the targeted build-up of the DELTOID (shoulders), the LATISSIMUS DORSI (back) and the TRAPEZIUS (upper back and neck) will give you the much desired V-shape. The DYN0-TRAINER will do just that!

4) many sportsmen may unwittingly abuse their hearts (which is a muscle in itself, as you well know) and circulation. The DYN0-TRAINER with its automatic adaptation to your condition will permit just that much exertion of your power as will be beneficial to your limitations given by age. It is the best way to prevent heart trouble!

5) POWERFUL LEGS and ARMS can not be achieved by calisthenics alone. Only the DYN0-TRAINER will give those growth impulses automatically, which are so necessary for the build-up of your muscles. You can rest assured that they will grab whatever they can get!

WE'LL LET YOU SHARE THESE SECRETS - FREE!

You'll find 42 tips and know-hows in our FREE GIANT COLOR BROCHURE which is yours for the asking. It will tell you everything that is necessary to build an athletic and healthy body. We don't only say "go and exercise" and then leave you alone to do as you know (or don't). We'll show you exactly what you will have to do in your case, in order to achieve the best results, always considering YOUR condition and YOUR age. We'll be happy to send you our SUPER-BROCHURE free and without any obligation. Simply fill in the coupon below, or write us a postcard and you'll receive our wonderful COLOR-BROCHURE by return mail. Thanks for printing your name and address clearly.

Jose makes John's other trick, planned only if the first didn't work out, go up in smoke. As John dives off the top rope, hoping to kneedrop Jose, the sly Jose moves out of the way (above) and John crashes on his knee! Jose whips Rodz across the ring (below).

trying to show everyone he's better than I am. But we all know he's not.

"That guy was trying to defeat me within the 20 minute time limit. And I was not going to let him. So, when I saw that the referee was on his side, I decided to sit down and kill time. That's all. I don't think I was wrong. No, not at all."

John's plan didn't work out all too well though. Gonzales, anxious to win every match he can, grabbed Johnny by the legs and then flipped him over his body. Rodz crashed to the mat with a resounding thud. From then on, it was Gonzales all the way. Jose foiled Johnny's plan.

So, out of his sly head, Rodz thought he'd try another time killing trick. This time he ran to the corner turnbuckles and perched himself there. Jose charged toward him. Johnny put out his foot and Jose caught it right on the chin. He fell to the mat and it appeared he was unconscious.

"Great!" Rodz exclaimed at the top of his lungs. "You're finished Gonzales!"

Rodz stood and perched himself, this time on the top turnbuckle, obviously preparing to kneedrop Jose.

Well, his plan worked for about a tenth of a second. John took the leap. It was then that Jose let Johnny know he was playing possum.

You guessed it. Jose rolled out of the way. CRASH! That was followed by a very loud and painful "Owwwwwww!"

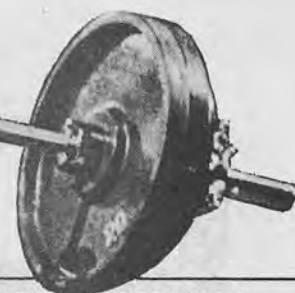

Johnny's sent reeling as Gonzales hits him with a series of judo chops. Rodz feels Jose's tactics were all illegal and uncalled for.

Rodz grabbed his knees and tried to ease the pain he was feeling. But Jose didn't let him. He followed up by pulling John up to his feet, whipping him across the ring and drop-kicking him three times.

Next, Jose went in for the kill. A series of spectacular aerial moves saw the Puerto Rican favorite walk all over Johnny and end Rodz' pain by letting him go back to the dressing room for first aid. But Rodz walked back a beaten man.

Jose accepted the plaudits of the crowd graciously. He was happy. The young man was pleased with his match and now he moved one step closer to his dream, a possible shot at the world title.

"Men like Rodz are trying to keep me from getting to the title," Jose explained. "But I plan to thwart their plans and go on to become the second Puerto Rican in history to win the title. Just like Pedro Morales, I'll make my people proud of me." □

LOSER LEAVES THE COUNTRY!

Referee Danny Bartfield checks thoroughly to make sure that Kobayashi doesn't have any salt. Note Kobayashi's right hand.

THE STAKES FOR the match were unbelievably high. The loser would be forced to leave the United States!

The two grapplers were Tony Garea and Kobayashi, the first hailing from New Zealand, the second a native of Japan. Since coming to the U.S.A., the two men have developed a long and lasting hatred for each other.

"If his courage," Tony challenged before the match, "is equal to his ability to break the rules, then he'll agree to my terms. I say let the loser leave the country. If I lose, I'll return to New Zealand. If Kobayashi loses, he has to return to Japan."

"I'm risking a lot," Tony conceded, "but it's worth it to me if I could be responsible for Kobayashi no longer polluting this country's wrestling arenas."

Kobayashi heard the terms and agreed immediately.

"I'll sign the contracts right now!" he promised. "Just give them to me. I'll even bring Garea a bouquet of dead flowers when he boards the plane for New Zealand."

So the two men met with their futures in the balance. Before the match could begin, Kobayashi was thoroughly searched for salt, which he often throws in his opponent's eyes. They used to search Houdini, too, but to no avail.

When the match began the enemies went at each other like wild animals. Tony wrestled scientifically and brilliantly. Kobayashi wrestled with illegal brutality and brilliantly. It looked for a moment

From now on Tony Garea won't sign any contracts without reading the fine print—especially when it involves dealings with people like Kobayashi that leaving the country would be the smallest hardship the loser would suffer.

Slowly but surely, Tony gained the advantage. No matter what Kobayashi tried, Tony countered and sent the Japanese wrestler flying.

Kobayashi, however, showed he had more success fooling the referee than wrestling Tony. He took out a hidden vial of salt and hurled its contents into Tony's eyes.

Staggered, Garea could not prevent Kobayashi from throwing him out of the ring. The damage was done before the referee disqualified Kobayashi.

When everyone had gone back to their dressing rooms, the promoters went to Kobayashi to help him prepare his trip back to Japan.

"I'm not going anywhere," Kobayashi explained with a smile, "for if you'll read my contract, you will see I added, 'All agreements are void in case of disqualification.' I did not bring this to your attention at the signing. If you look at the contract, you will see I'm right."

Kobayashi was right. What some men can't win in a wrestling match, they can win with a fountain pen. □

Mr. Nicholas has been to the White House to personally meet with the President of the United States after being selected as one of the outstanding businessmen in the Nation. *Lyndon B. Johnson 1964

A million jobs have disappeared since 1960 Will Your Job be Next to Go?

Shouldn't you start your own business NOW
...while still employed?

Before more jobs disappear through mergers, automation, and mechanization, shouldn't you at least investigate the way so many men have become owners of profitable businesses—starting spare time and now are independent of bosses, strikes, layoffs and automation? All that's needed is your name on the coupon. Facts mailed free. No salesman will call.

Here are facts: With some ambition and little over a thousand dollars, you start your own Duraclean business in spare time, without risking your job or paycheck!

It's a nationally advertised, worldwide business. It does not require skill, more than an average education, or traits except the willingness to work to start grossing $12, $19, or $26 profit per hour. By return mail, we will explain how.

You build by adding servicemen and/or servicewomen . . . and we pay for their equipment so you can expand rapidly.

This is a service to homeowners as well as offices and stores and institutions—a sensationally improved method of cleaning carpets and upholstered furniture right on the customer's premises—the EXCLUSIVE DURACLEAN SYSTEM!

When you have had your own carpet and furniture cleaned, you know that ordinary methods grind fibers with harsh scrubbing, leaving carpet soggy for days.

This exclusive ABSORPTION METHOD lifts out dirt and greasy soil with a gentle, almost dry foam. Do-it-yourself "so-called" cleaning methods and scrubbing drive soil deeper. You TAKE IT OUT. Carpets and furniture can be used again in a few hours! This is vital to stores, offices, motels.

You operate under a nationally known name—use an exclusive process recommended by the nation's leading carpet mills and in the editorial pages by House & Garden, McCall's, Parents, and House Beautiful. You receive our step by step guidance and help.

Your training shows you how to perform your 7 superior "on location" services . . . how to get customers, how to control your expenses, how to make the maximum profit. You become an expert in the care of furnishings. It is an interesting, exciting career.

Although in time you will wish to buy one or more trucks from your profits, no truck or office is needed to start. You can carry all equipment in your car trunk. Your phone calls can be received at home.

As a Duraclean Dealer you are the sole owner of an independent business and are your own boss. You keep all the net profits.

This business can pay you far more than most men earn—with only the talent and ambition you now possess, and you can operate in any one of three ways.

Many let servicemen do the work while they make a substantial profit on each.

Some men operate permanently in spare time for the extra money they need. Some start in spare time and quit their jobs only after they see they can make a lot more money as a full time Duraclean Specialist.

Even small one-man businesses with one or two helpers can and do bring in $30,000 and more annually. A very high percent is clear profit to you.

The Duraclean Business can be as small as you want or it can be expanded to the level your ambition dictates. There is no limit on income for an ambitious man.

We are about to appoint a limited number of men who are truly ambitious, and anxious to do something about their futures. We want men who will follow our proven plans for success and who want—with our help—their own successful businesses.

If this opportunity interests you, please send your name, on the coupon at the right, for a FREE 24-page booklet which gives complete details on the Duraclean Business. No salesman will call on you. After you've read the facts, decide in the privacy of your home if you wish to take the next step toward starting a business.

WE SWITCHED!

"For the first time in 20 years I've got security—without fear of losing my factory job."

H. E., Ohio

"I took in $2880 in April. I worked from my home. My wife handles all telephone calls. We both enjoy our new-found independence and the compliments we get from satisfied customers."

J.F.A., Texas

"When I was 40 I decided to retire before I was 50 years old. With Duraclean I gained financial security in only 8 years—then sold my business at a big profit."

J.H., Ill.

"Duraclean brought security and an education for my daughters. We've done as much as $3000 on a single job."

Mrs. B.B., Mass.

"Life is happier and more prosperous for my family and me. Without Duraclean I'd still be going from layoff to layoff. Now moving to new 5-bedroom home."

R.J.B., Mich.
